Integrative Seminar 1

Total Credits: ONE

Corequisite(s): ED 108, ED 140

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This weekly seminar is crucial for helping students to understand the Early Childhood Educator’s role in working with young children. Student experiences and ideas, as well as suggestions for interacting effectively in field placement settings will be exchanged. In addition, professional responsibilities, especially reliability and confidentiality, are emphasized.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

A. Learning Outcomes:

1. Use a variety of observational strategies and methods to document children’s behaviour.

2. Participate actively in class discussions by providing examples of experiences and personal interactions at his/her placement.

B. Learning Outcomes and Elements of the Performance:

Upon successful completion of this course the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Use a variety of observational strategies and methods to document children’s behaviour.

Potential elements of the performance:

- complete readings and observation assignments
- participate actively in class discussions
- distinguish between objective and subjective observations and describe their crucial differences.

This learning outcome will constitute 45% of the course’s grade.

Each student is allowed to miss one class without penalty; after that, 5% per class missed will be deducted.

Attendance 20%
Participation 10%
Observations: 35%
Assignments 20%
Interactions 10%
Final Analysis 5%

VI.  SPECIAL NOTES:

- Special Needs
  If you are a student with special needs (eg. Physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with the instructor and/or contact the Special Needs Office, Room E1204, Ext. 493, 717, 491 so that support services can be arranged for you.

- Retention of Course Outlines
  It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other post-secondary institutions.

- Your instructor reserves the right to modify the course as he/she deems necessary to meet the needs of students.

- Assignments are to be handed to the teacher on the due date. NQA coupons will be honoured as per departmental policy. Students need to keep copies of assignments in case the originals become lost or misplaced.
VII. Prior Learning Assessment

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the instructor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of the following:
