X  A temporary grade. This is used in limited situations with extenuating circumstances giving a student additional time to complete the requirements for a course (see Policies & Procedures Manual – Deferred Grades and Make-up).

NR Grade not reported to Registrar's office. This is used to facilitate transcript preparation when, for extenuating circumstances, it has not been possible for the faculty member to report grades.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Special Needs:
If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your instructor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1204 or call Extension 493, 717, or 491 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of course outlines:
It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Plagiarism:
Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course outline amendments:
The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.
VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Not Yet Available.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean’s secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.

LEARNING ACTIVITIES

In order to develop an understanding of yourself as a teacher of young children, in-class exercises and projects will be assigned as a way of examining bias, prejudice and discrimination.

NOTE: Articles submitted past the time frame mentioned will not be graded.

Student will prepare a typed report critiquing the experience. (Students unable to attend this simulation need to see the professor for personalized alternative assignment. The responsibility to discuss this with the professor belongs with the student)

Seminar/Research presentations will be presented in class (along with class summary sheet to be handed out on assigned date.) The seminar will be a thorough research of a culture of your choice, presenting it in a preschool curriculum format. A typed copy will be given to the professor for marking. (APA format)

Tests on in-class material (dates announced in class).

Late policy applies for assignments and tests: see E.C.E. Policy for details. Class presentations will not be rescheduled and the late assignment policy will not apply.
