I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is primarily designed for students from the Early Childhood Education program, but can be customized for students from other disciplines by the completion of alternate assignments.

Child abuse intervention and treatment are now generally seen as the responsibility of every individual. Spousal abuse also needs to take the forefront as a crucial social issue. By examining the ways that families and individuals resolve conflict, students will learn that non-violent behaviours can replace dysfunctional patterns. Learning constructive ways of coping with stress, anger and conflict can become a deterrent to the family violence phenomenon. Students will examine the complex factors and conditions which contribute to various forms of abusive situations within the family. Causes for various forms of violence, reporting procedures, and intervention strategies are examined as well. A web-based format will be used for some assignments and for course notes.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Identify Historical, Cultural and Sociological Antecedents to Intra-family Violence and differentiate between forms of abuse

   Elements of the Performance:

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM

Course learning outcomes will be determined on the basis of the following:

1. ABUSE RESEARCH 25%

2. FAMILY VIOLENCE LEARNING MODULES (on WebCT) 20%

3. TESTS (2x15%) 30%

4. IN-CLASS COOPERATIVE ACTIVITIES 20%

5. FAMILY VIOLENCE SURVEY 5%

100%

EVALUATION PROCESS DESCRIPTION:

1. RESEARCH ASSIGNMENT:

METHOD: Pick a topic and design a questionnaire or research outline.

In your essay/summary include a clear introduction, a discussion of results/findings and distinct conclusion. Also you must make suggestions on how to prevent such forms of violence.

Any research information and/or quotes from any sources must be appropriately documented using APA Documentation. NO PLAGIARISM!

Supply a related bibliography if applicable.

Refer to the Essay Evaluation to view the marking scheme.
CHOOSE ONE OF THE FOLLOWING:

CHOICE 1: PREPARE A MEDIA FILE

- Make a list of popular films/videos which depict violence against spouses (women and/or men).
- Provide a brief outline of the content.
- Assess the biases and messages presented in the videos and in the social systems they are depicting.
- Give examples of conversations and scenes which portray sexual, psychological, physical and/or financial abuse. Include examples of how minority women are portrayed and describe how this portrayal influences the observer's attitudes.
- What aspects portrayed in the films/videos support the act of spousal abuse? Explain how this helps to perpetuate abuse in our society.
- Be sure to note where you viewed the film/video, where it can be obtained, and the date printed or made.

CHOICE 2: DO A MEDIA ANALYSIS OF MUSIC VIDEOS.

- Use the same parameters as for the above.

CHOICE 3: ARTICLE SUMMARIES

- Summarize a minimum of 20 articles on the topic of child abuse, violence against partners, or elder abuse. These will be obtained from current (within the last two years) newspapers, magazines, and journals.

METHOD: For EACH article, summarize the main points (5 marks)
Discuss the significance on an individual and a societal basis (5 marks)
Propose a course of action or possible solution to the crisis involved (5 marks)
Discuss the implications for the perpetuation of abuse in this type of case (5 marks)
Suggest measures for the prevention of such abuse from recurring (5 marks)
CHOICE 4: RESEARCH ESSAY

A. Research how the law related to violence against women has changed over the last 80 years in Canada. How do these changes relate to other issues of women's rights across this time period?

OR

B. Research how society's attitude to children as well as the legislation for the protection of children in Ontario has changed over the last 100 years. How can Early Childhood Educators become better advocates of children's rights? Suggest some innovative ways of promoting child abuse prevention.

OR

C. Do the same as A above, on the topic of Dating Violence.

2. TESTS - 30%

Achievement of learning outcomes will be measured by mandatory testing as follows, see course schedule on WebCt:

Test #1 (15%): Module 1 to Module 3, Lesson 1
Test #2 (15%): Module 3, Lesson 2 to Module 6

3. FAMILY VIOLENCE LEARNING MODULES – 20%

Respond to the module questions and submit responses by the due dates

4. IN-CLASS PARTICIPATION: 20%

Students will participate in group learning activities during class time, thus attendance at classes is required.

5. ABUSE AND FAMILY VIOLENCE SURVEY - 5%

Refer to the Survey Evaluation for particulars

6. CARE FOR KIDS PREVENTION WORKSHOP

Students will attend a child abuse prevention workshop on "Care for Kids" presented by the Algoma Health Unit, on Tuesday, September 24th, 2002. Specifics to be discussed in class.

Location: Trinity Centre, Cara Community Corp

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Special Needs:
If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your instructor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1204 or call Extension 493, 717, or 491 so that support services can be arranged for you.
Retention of course outlines:
It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Plagiarism:
Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course outline amendments:
The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:
Not available at this time.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:
Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean’s secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
