I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Using the anti-bias approach, this course explores the role of diversity within the educational process. Emphasis will be placed on an awareness of the diverse components of Canadian society. In order to increase knowledge, educators must be aware of resources, services and materials which are appropriate when developing programs which reflect diversity.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Act in a manner consistent with principles of fairness, equity, and diversity to support the development and learning of individual children, within the context of his/her family, culture and society
   (Reflection of CSAC Vocational Standard #9)

   Potential Elements of the Performance:
   - recognize and express the value of diversity and commonality that exists among individuals
   - promote an environment of mutual respect
   - examine personal attitudes which may interfere with the formation of an anti-bias way of thinking
   - demonstrate skills for combating bias, prejudice and discrimination

2. Extend understanding of the diversity within Canadian society
   (Reflection of CSAC General Education #3 and #5)

   Potential Elements of the Performance:
   - recognize and understand the areas of bias
   - develop list of resources and agencies that promote diversity
   - participate in and critique the simulation of another culture

3. Develop anti-bias programming

   Potential Elements of the Performance:
   - plan curriculum and develop programs that are responsive to the diverse needs of individual children and groups of children, using developmentally appropriate practices
   - suggest intervention methods for promoting sensitivity to diversity issues
   - foster children’s positive self-concept and acceptance of diversity
   - increase knowledge of resources, services and materials appropriate for anti-bias programming
III. TOPICS:

1. Definitions
2. Issues
3. Examining Personal Biases
4. Anti-bias programming
5. Educator’s Role
6. Government Services, Programs, Materials and Resources
7. Professionalism

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

VII. SPECIAL NOTES:

Special Needs:
If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your professor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 703 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of Course Outlines:
It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other post-secondary institutions.

Plagiarism:
Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.
Course Outline Amendments:
The professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

Specific Class Information

Assignments:
• Major assignments (5% or more) must be submitted on the due date, at the beginning of class, unless otherwise specified by the instructor. If major assignments are late, both the following steps must be taken in order for the assignment to be evaluated;
  1. Major assignments that are late are to be handed in to Room E3209 (slip under the door).
  2. The instructor will be notified, through WebCT, that the assignment has been handed in. An attachment (in Microsoft Word format) of the completed assignment must be included. A reply will be sent back to you indicating that the material has been received.
• Late, major assignments will be deducted 5% per day (20% maximum deduction). Major assignments more than one week late will not be accepted.
• All assignments are to be typed unless otherwise stated.
• In-class or weekly assignment are due on the assigned date. These assignments will not be accepted after that date, as they are a part of class work and discussions.
• Students are responsible for retaining a file of all drafts and returned assignments. We suggest students keep their computer file of assignments until the end of semester. In the event of a grade dispute, students must produce the graded assignment, so it can be recorded
• Students must adhere to dates set for oral presentations unless the professor has approved prior arrangements. Students who do not present on their presentation date will forfeit the mark for that assignment.

Tests/Quizzes:
Tests/Quizzes must be completed on the date scheduled. If unable to attend due to illness or extenuating circumstances, contact the professor prior to the start of the test. An alternative date must be arranged before the next class.
Learning Environment:
In the interest of providing an optimal learning environment, students are to follow these expectations;
• Students should be aware that the expectations for their conduct in class are outlined in the "Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities" in the Sault College Handbook.
• Late students are expected to quietly enter the classroom and sit in the nearest seat available. Have your notes and writing material ready before you enter class. If assignments and activities have begun, please wait until they are completed. Wait until after class to speak to classmates about missed material. Make sure you have made arrangements with someone in the class to pick up handouts and take notes for you.
• Students are to keep private conversations out of the classroom.

Missed Classes
If a student misses a class, it is their responsibility to ask a classmate to take notes and pick up assignments and handouts.

VIII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

IX. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean’s secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
