COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will involve studying various aspects of parent-teacher-child relationships, including an understanding of parents as people with values, goals, individual background and needs to be met. Communication processes, group dynamics and leadership styles will also be studied. Planning meetings to interpret preschool education to parents will be approached through theory and practice.

COURSE PHILOSOPHY

This course is designed to help students to learn to develop awareness and skills enabling them to understand and facilitate effective relationships.

COURSE GOALS

1. To study communication processes and leadership dynamics.
2. To study the nature of interpersonal relationships.
3. To study the nature of interviewing and its principles.
4. To study parent/teacher partnerships

OBJECTIVES

1. To be able to discuss, apply and demonstrate an understanding of theories of human communication processes, as well as group and leadership dynamics.
2. To be able to critically discuss interviewing principles and demonstrate the application of interviewing techniques in a written evaluation report of a "child development" interview conducted with a preschool child's parents.
3. To be able to plan and conduct a parent meeting having an E.C.E. focus and to write a follow-up evaluation report.
4. To be able to develop empathy and understanding for parents in their multifaceted role.
5. To be able to research and prepare resource materials, handouts and a bibliography of suggested readings for distribution to parents.

TEXT
