I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

In this course, students will study a wide range of children's literature. The important characteristics of books, stories, poems and pictures will be discussed. Methods of presentation and ways of including and enjoying literature in the school curriculum will be a primary focus.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. formulate and express an opinion on current issues and trends in children's literature.

   Potential Elements of the Performance:
   • research the historical significance of children's literature
   • identify current issues and trends in children’s literature
   • examine and critique the current literacy curriculum

2. examine procedures and problems in book selection and presentation

   Potential Elements of the Performance:
   • analyze effective environments for promoting language and literature
   • develop strategies for choosing best literature
   • develop teaching strategies for presenting literature to children

3. formulate plans that recognize and include literature as an integral part of a developmentally appropriate preschool curriculum.

   Potential Elements of the Performance:
   • develop comprehensive lesson plans for story-telling
   • recognize and utilize a variety of story-telling types and techniques
   • provide literature as a basis for activities in all curriculum areas
   • develop a literacy kit that demonstrates developmentally appropriate curriculum
4. choose literature that is consistent with principles of fairness, equity and diversity to support the development of individual children, within the context of family culture and society.

Potential Elements of the Performance:
- examine and critique literature for anti-bias concepts
- recognize and express the value of diversity and commonality in literacy/literature presentation
- utilize developmentally appropriate and inclusive practices in providing educational media and literature

III. TOPICS:

These topics sometimes overlap and are not intended to be dealt with always in isolated units or necessarily in this order:

1. History of Children’s Literature – an overview
2. Early Literacy
3. Value of Literature for Children
4. Creating a Reading Environment
5. Book Selection Criteria
6. Literary Criticism
7. Using Various Types of Literature & Genres
8. Story-telling Delivery Techniques
9. Integrating Literature and Media into the Curriculum

IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES/TEXTS/MATERIALS:

Growing Up with Literature, Sawyer and Comer, Delmar Publishers, 2000

I'm a Little Teapot - Presenting Preschool Storytime, Jane Cobb, Black Sheep Press

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM:

1. Assignments and Quizzes (25%)
Various in-class and "overnight" projects are assigned to be handed in and/or reported on in class. Short quizzes based on assigned reading material will be scheduled at the beginning of some classes. Some workshops and presentations may be scheduled in the evening. Two weeks notice will be provided. Assignments, based on these presentations, will be distributed in class.
2. Early Literacy Information Sheet (10%)
Each student will develop an information sheet based on Early Literacy research. A complete explanation of the criteria and an assessment rubric will be distributed in class.

3. Literacy Kit (20%)
Each student will prepare a literacy kit based on a pre-determined topic. Topic choices will be cleared with the professor. The kit will be presented and assessed in class. A complete explanation of the criteria and an assessment rubric will be distributed in class.

4. Literature Kit Binder (10%)
Each student will develop a binder with copies of fellow students' literacy kit ideas. A complete explanation of the criteria and an assessment rubric will be distributed in class.

4. Tests (35%)
Two tests will be scheduled. All tests will be based on class discussions, class assignments and text and article readings.

The following semester grades will be assigned to students in post-secondary courses:

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Special Needs:
If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your instructor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 703 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of course outlines:
It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Plagiarism:
Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course, as may be decided by the professor. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.
Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

Assignments must be submitted on the due date at the beginning of class. Late assignments will be deducted 5% per day. Assignments will not be accepted after one week past the due date.

Tests/presentations must be completed when scheduled. The professor must be called prior to the test/presentation if you are unable to attend. Another time must be arranged prior to the next scheduled class.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean's secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
