V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM

Attendance and participation at seminar classes is crucial to the integration of teaching theory and practice. Each student must take the responsibility of contributing constructively to seminar discussions, while always keeping in mind confidentiality and respect for others.

Attendance

Attendance and participation at seminar classes is crucial to the integration of teaching theory and practice. Each student is allowed to miss one class without penalty; after that, 5% per class missed will be deducted.

Participation:

20%

Due to the nature of integrating the student’s field placement experience with theoretical principles, the student will be required to actively participate in reporting and discussing strategies and issues in the field. Assignments will be discussed in class.

Child Study:

25%

In Placement Observations

1. Developmental Profile Checklist
2. Observation; Event Sampling
3. Observation: 3 M’s

(due dates will be discussed in class)

Journal/Interaction Reports

20%

1. 1 journal (1x5)
2. 1 interaction report (1x5)
   (observations to be done in placement)

(due dates will be discussed in class)

Self-evaluation

20%

1. Working Copy of Semester II Progress Review (15%)
2. Self-Evaluation of Participation in Seminar Class (5%)
   (use form in Seminar Workbook – due last seminar class)

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Special Needs:
If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your professor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 493 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of Course Outlines:
It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other post-secondary institutions.
Plagiarism:
Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course Outline Amendments:
The professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar’s office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:
Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:
Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean’s secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
