Course Title: DEVELOPMENTAL ENGLISH
Code No.: ENG 099-6
Program: Various second semester post-secondary programs.
Semester: FIRST AND SECOND
Date: 1986-87
Author: LANGUAGE AND COMMUNICATION SKILLS DEPARTMENT

New: ___ Revision: X

APPROVED: [Signature] Chairperson
Date: Aug. 18/86
PHILOSOPHY/GOALS (COURSE DESCRIPTION)

The course aims at achieving a standard of reading and writing skills appropriate to college studies. At the beginning of the course, students identified by pre-tests measuring reading comprehension, vocabulary development and expository writing skills will participate in an intensive communication skills program (six class hours per week).

METHOD OF ASSESSMENT (GRADING METHOD)

Students will be assessed on the basis of their writing and editing assignments, summaries, comprehension and vocabulary tests, reading lab exercises and final tests.

Letter grades will be assigned in accordance with the Language and Communication Skills Department guidelines.

The following grade symbols will be used in recording final grades:

"+" - consistently outstanding

"A" - outstanding

"B" - above average

"C" - satisfactory

"R" - repeat (the student has not achieved the objectives of the course, and the course must be repeated).

A detailed description is attached to the course outline.

GRADING

Written work assigned and graded will constitute 60% of your grade. A final grade exam will constitute 30% and such factors as improvement, classroom activities and participation will account for the remaining 10%.

TEXTBOOKS AND SUPPLIES

1. The Globe Modern Dictionary

2. The Communication Circuit - Basic Reading and Writing Skills, Baker.

3. Assignments in Exposition, Rorabacher.

4. Students will be required to purchase two overhead transparencies and a black or blue non-permanent, water soluble transparency pen (available in the Campus Shop).

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the course, students will be able to do the following:

1. write clear, concise, grammatically correct sentences in a variety of standard sentence patterns.

2. write unified, emphatic, well-organized paragraphs.

3. write brief, coherent essays embodying a number of expository techniques to serve a specific audience, such as process analysis, comparison and contrast, cause and effect, classification and description.

4. produce accurate summaries of the important ideas in a variety of written material.

5. demonstrate acquisition of vocabulary development techniques (dictionary use, context, personal glossary).

6. read at a level consistent with post-secondary work.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS

A variety of methods including classroom presentations, small group discussions, directed readings and language lab are used to respond to student needs. Lab teachers will provide supervised reading programmes and individualized or small group instruction in writing.
