III. TOPICS:

Note: These topics sometimes overlap several areas of skills development and are not necessarily intended to be explored in isolated learning units or in the order below.

1. Basic Grammar Theory
2. Paragraphs and Program-related Writing – incorporating proper sentence structure, organization, and methods of development
3. Documentation Skills
4. Editing Skills

Periodic tests will be used to measure skill mastery.
IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES / TEXTS / MATERIALS:

2. Language and Communication Guidelines (provided)
3. Two 3.5" computer disks (dedicated to English)

V. EVALUATION PROCESS / GRADING SYSTEM:

MAJOR ASSIGNMENTS AND TESTING
(Refer also to the Language and Communication Guidelines)

The professor will announce which of the following will be completed in class under test conditions (minimum of 20%):

1. Basic Grammar Theory 40%
   Students will be evaluated on a minimum of two (2) tests.

2. Writing 30%
   Basic writing skills (15%), and
   Program-related expository writing assignments (15%).

3. Documentation and Research Skills 10%
   Many subjects studied in college require support of the writer’s main ideas through research. The sources of information used in research must be cited using a standard method of documentation.

4. Final Exam 20%
   Achievement of course-learning outcomes will be measured by mandatory final testing.

TOTAL 100%

Notes:
1. Professors reserve the right to adjust the course as they deem necessary to meet the needs of students.
2. Professors will deduct marks for any grammar and fundamental errors in final submissions.
3. Marking schemes for assignments will vary from professor to professor and from assignment to assignment. This flexibility recognizes that professors need to vary their approaches as they assist students with differing levels of competence to meet the learning outcomes of the course and to respond to program areas.
VI. EVALUATION PROCESS / GRADING SYSTEM (continued):

TIME FRAME

Communication Skills for Office Administration CMM130-3 involves three hours per week for the semester. Two of these hours will be scheduled in a computer lab.
VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Special Needs:
If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your professor and/or the Special Needs office so that support services can be arranged for you.

Complementary Activities
To meet course objectives, students should expect to match each scheduled class hour with independent study.

Retention of Course Outlines:
It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other post-secondary institutions.

Plagiarism:
Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course Outline Amendments:
The professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean’s secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
