- Final examination – Must integrate documented sources ............................. 30%

Marks will be deducted for editing errors in final submissions.
Notes:

1. Student work, including the final examination, will be assessed on the basis of language proficiency, research and documentation, unity and cohesion, and editing.
2. The professor reserves the right to adjust the course delivery as he/she deems necessary to meet the needs of students.
3. Professors will deduct marks for any grammar and fundamental errors in final submissions.
4. Marking schemes for essays and other assignments will vary from professor to professor and from assignment to assignment. This flexibility recognizes that professors need to vary their approaches as they assist students with differing levels of competence to meet the learning outcomes of the course and to respond to program area needs. However, the marking scheme for the CMM120 final examination will be standard throughout the department.
5. Some of the assignments may be in conjunction with program-related assignments, as specified by the professor.
6. Collaboration is not allowed unless pre-approved or requested by the professor. Unauthorized collaboration constitutes academic dishonesty and will be treated as such.
7. The College subscribes to SafeAssign and supports its use as a means of ensuring academic integrity.
