I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

In this survey course, students will become familiar with the various genres of literature. A variety of fiction, poetry and drama is explored in terms of historical literary tradition. Intensive study involves identification of literary terminology and devices and archetypal themes within specific works so as to enhance the appreciation of literature.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

A. Learning Outcomes:

1. Trace historical development of poetry, drama and prose fiction from their roots
2. Apply critical tools for analyzing short stories
3. Recognize and appreciate the various forms of poetry
4. Recognize and discuss the various forms of drama
5. Analyze thematic issues which link all writers of great literature, while recognizing the differences that historical perspective, literary form and culture generate

B. Learning Outcomes and Elements of the Performance:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Trace historical development of poetry, drama and prose fiction from their roots.

Potential elements of the performance:
- recognize key characteristics of each genre
- identify the major historical events and movements that have influenced old, middle and modern English
- identify key figures in the evolution of each genre

2. Apply critical tools for analyzing short stories.

Potential elements of the performance:
- identify such terms as conflict, narrative point of view, atmosphere, foreshadowing, suspense, character development and plot development
- recognize “theme” as it evolves from plot, character and description
- compare different authors’ approaches to similar themes
- analyze the use of figurative language and its effect in short fiction
II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE (Continued):

3. Recognize and appreciate the various forms of poetry.

Potential elements of the performance:
- recognize the characteristics of sonnets, ballads and other types of poems
- identify various metrical arrangements such as iambic, trochaic and anapaestic
- recognize the value and effect of a variety of rhyming schemes and of no-rhyming schemes in poetry
- trace the thematic approaches to similar themes from poets of different historical eras
- give oral and written critiques of various poems

4. Recognize and discuss the various forms of drama.

Potential elements of the performance:
- recognize the evolution of western theatre from its Greek roots
- describe the characteristics of classical tragedy and comedy
- identify the components of a five-act play by studying one
- compare characterization and plot development in different plays
- describe the various forms of stages and their uses

5. Analyze thematic issues which link all writers of great literature, while recognizing the differences that historical perspective, literary form and culture generate.

Potential elements of the performance:
- participate in class discussions
- write mature, critical essay answers
- recognize archetypal thematic patterns

METHOD OF ASSESSMENT (GRADING METHOD) (Continued):

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

NOTE: Students may be assigned an “F” grade early in the course for unsatisfactory performance.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Special Needs
Students with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, learning disabilities) are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with the professor and/or contact the Special Needs Office.

Complementary Activities
To meet course objectives, students should expect to match each scheduled class hour with independent study.

Plagiarism
Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in the “Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities.”

Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or other such penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course.

In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Advanced Standing
Students who have completed an equivalent post-secondary course must bring relevant documents to the Coordinator, General Arts and Science Department:
• A copy of course outline
• A copy of the transcript verifying successful completion of the equivalent course

Retention of Course Outlines
Students are responsible for retaining all course outlines for possible future use in gaining advanced standing at other post-secondary institutions.

Substitute course information is available at the Registrar’s office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.
