ENG 225-3 REPORTING IN THE HELPING PRACTICES

PHILOSOPHY/GOALS: (COURSE DESCRIPTION)

This course prepares students for employment in the human services professions where skills of clarity, accuracy and conciseness are necessary in both written and oral communications. Special emphasis is placed on adapting tone and language suited to the intended audience. Projects are designed to increase the student's skills in locating, gathering, and organizing information from professional journals and community agencies.

TEXTBOOKS

Students will be responsible for using a variety of articles from human services periodicals and professional journals.

SUMMARY OF OBJECTIVES

1. Students will demonstrate the ability to adapt the format, tone, and diction of a communication to the needs of a specific audience in a given situation.

2. Students will develop skills in locating, gathering, and applying information during the preparation of written and oral reports.

3. Students, in their written assignments, will demonstrate the ability to produce clear, accurate well-organized text in a variety of formats.

4. Students will give well-organized, coherent, effective oral presentation, using visual aids where appropriate.

5. Students will prepare an effective job-application package including the letter of application, resume, and an interview.

6. Students will demonstrate comprehension of program-related material from professional journals.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS

A variety of methods including classroom presentation, small group discussions and directed readings will be used to respond to student's needs.
Evaluation will normally be done by the instructor, but in some assignments, peer evaluation may be required.

METHOD OF ASSESSMENT

Letter grades for assignments will be in accordance with the Language and Communication Department Guidelines.
The following letter grades will be assigned as final grades in courses in the Language and Communication Department:

A+ Consistently outstanding (90% - 100%)
A Outstanding achievement (80% - 89%)
B Consistently above average achievement (70% - 79%)
C Satisfactory or acceptable achievement in all areas subject to assessment (60% - 69%)
R Repeat--The student has not achieved the objectives of the course and the course must be repeated. (Less than 60%)
CR Credit exemption
X A temporary grade, limited to situations with extenuating circumstances, giving a student additional time to complete course requirements

Note: Students may be assigned an "R" grade early in the course for unsatisfactory performance.

The midterm and final grades are found in the guidelines.

PLAGIARISM

Students should refer to the definition of "academic dishonesty" in the "Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities."

Students who engage in "academic dishonesty" will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course, as may be decided by the professor.

In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ the APA Documentation Format for referencing source material.
