I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course prepares students for employment in the human service professions. Emphasis is placed on career exploration and the production of a variety of written and oral communications suited for the various purposes and audiences relevant to this profession. In this course, the principles of writing are taught through the writing process.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

A. Learning Outcomes:

1. Adapt the format, tone, and diction of a communication to the needs of a specific audience in a given situation.
2. Locate, gather, and apply information during the preparation of written and oral reports using appropriate tools to facilitate the information-gathering process.
3. Demonstrate, in written assignments, the ability to produce clear, accurate, well-organized text in a variety of formats.
4. Give a well-organized, coherent, effective, oral presentation, using visual aids where appropriate.
5. Prepare an effective employment package.
6. Demonstrate, in writing, comprehension of program-related material from professional journals.
7. Employ a variety of editing techniques.

B. Learning Outcomes and Elements of the Performance:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Adapt the format, tone, and diction of a communication to the needs of a specific audience in a given situation.

Potential elements of the performance:
- Utilize the most effective format, taking into consideration the writer’s goals and the expected audiences’ reactions, including agencies and other stakeholders.
- Choose a tone in the communication that will best serve to achieve the desired purpose and to effect the desired reaction on the reader’s part.
- Select the most appropriate communication style (sentence type and length, word choice, paragraph structure, etc.)
II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE: (continued)

2. Locate, gather, and apply information during the preparation of reports.

Potential elements of the performance:
- Use tools such as filing systems, references, interviews, libraries, and technological means to gather appropriate, accurate, and useful information for preparation of a report.
- Employ observation techniques and demonstrate the difference between objective and subjective writing.
- Select the proper format for the report type needed, and apply the information in the most effective way.
- Locate, gather, and apply information using appropriate technological and traditional tools during the preparation of reports.
- Use comparative information-checking and other validation techniques to evaluate all sources for reliability.
- Prepare for and participate in a career information interview.
- Produce a report which outlines career requirements and options.

3. Demonstrate, in written assignments, the ability to produce clear, accurate text in a variety of formats.

Potential elements of the performance:
- Within the context of a given scenario, produce well-organized, logical, error-free documents.
- Write all submissions so the purpose of the written communication is clear and any required action on the part of the recipient is easily seen.
- Produce effective short reports in a limited time frame.

4. Give a well-organized, coherent, effective, informal oral presentation, using visual aids where appropriate.

Potential elements of the performance:
- Organize a presentation to meet the needs of an audience: logical development, proper sequencing, prior knowledge of the audience concerning the topic, etc.
- Present effectively in a dynamic manner that achieves the speaker’s purpose.
- Use visual aids effectively.

5. Submit an effective employment package.

Potential elements of the performance:
- Submit an effective letter of application responding to an advertised position.
- Submit a resume for the prepared letter of application.
- Demonstrate how to research an employment opportunity.

V. EVALUATION PROCESS / GRADING SYSTEM (continued):

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

NOTE: Students may be assigned a mid-term grade of “F” for unsatisfactory performance.

TIME FRAME

Human Services Communication CMM225-3 involves three periods per week for the semester. A minimum of one hour will be completed in the computer lab. Students are expected to attend class and to participate in class activities.

Mid-Term Grades

At mid-term one of the following grades will be assigned:

S Satisfactory performance to the time of mid-term grade assignment (does not indicate successful completion of the course)

U Unsatisfactory performance to the time of mid-term grade assignment (does not indicate unsuccessful completion of the course)

F The course must be repeated; minimal performance has resulted in the course outcomes not being met

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Special Needs:
If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your professor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 703 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Complementary Activities
To meet course objectives, students should expect to match each scheduled class hour with independent study.

Retention of Course Outlines:
It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other post-secondary institutions.
VI. SPECIAL NOTES (continued):

Plagiarism:
Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course Outline Amendments:
The professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean's secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
