III. TOPICS:

*Note: These topics sometimes overlap several areas of skill development and are not necessarily intended to be explored in isolated learning units or in the order below.

1. Mechanics - grammar
2. Email, Memo and Letter Writing
3. Cover Letter and Résumé
4. Note-taking and Report Writing
5. Research Project
6. Oral Presentation Skills

IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES / TEXTS / MATERIALS:

3. Evidence Notebook D24 3.5” x 5”
4. The Language and Communication Guidelines (provided)
5. LMS
V. EVALUATION PROCESS / GRADING SYSTEM:

MAJOR ASSIGNMENTS AND TESTING:
(Refer also to the Language and Communication Guidelines)

1. Writing assignments
   a. Mechanics – Editing and Grammar (5%).
      minimum of one assignment and/or test not subject to revision and resubmission
   b. Email, Memo and Letter Writing (15%).
      minimum of one email or memo, and one letter
   c. Reports minimum of four assignments including interviews, note-taking, and narrative reports (40%).

   Note: A minimum of 20% of the written assignments will be completed in class under test conditions.

2. Cover Letter and Resume (10%)

3. Research Project
   a) Written Report (20%).
      Program related research report will be completed individually or as a group and will include the completion of a project plan, a public announcement, and an interview
      The written report will include a minimum of:
      • 8-12 pages (Introduction to Conclusion/Recommendations)
      • three (3) sources
      Failure to include APA documentation (in-text and on References page) will result in a grade of 0.

   b) Oral Presentation (10%).
      Students will be evaluated on the oral presentation of the written report. The research project is completed in groups and is orally presented as a group; however, each person within the group must have a speaking role.

   N.B. Due to the nature of the testing, students are required to contact the professor before the test if they are to be absent. Students, who do not contact the professor in advance, will not be given the opportunity to write.

   In all cases, the professor will determine the order in which assignments are to be covered. Students will be notified of changes in the assignment weighting and marking schemes as required.

TIME FRAME

Reporting in Criminal Justice Professions PFP204-3 involves three periods per week for the entire semester. A minimum of one hour per week will take place in a computer lab. Students are expected to attend class and to participate in class activities.
V. EVALUATION PROCESS / GRADING SYSTEM: (continued)

METHOD OF ASSESSMENT (GRADING METHOD)

The following letter grades will be assigned in accordance with the Language and Communication Department Guidelines:

<table>

</tbody>
</table>

CR (Credit) Credit for diploma requirements has been awarded.

S Satisfactory achievement in field/clinical placement or non-graded subject area.

U Unsatisfactory achievement in field/clinical placement or non-graded subject area.

X A temporary grade limited to situations with extenuating circumstances giving a student additional time to complete the requirements for a course.

NR Grade not reported to Registrar's office.

W Student has withdrawn from the course without academic penalty.

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

Students enrolled in Police Foundations or the Protection, Security and Investigation programs will require a minimum of 60% (C) as a passing grade in each course.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

NOTE: Students may be assigned an “F” grade early in the course for unsatisfactory performance.
V. EVALUATION PROCESS / GRADING SYSTEM (continued):

GRADING

Written work assigned and graded will constitute 70% of the grade. A final research project/presentation will constitute 30%.

Marking schemes for assignments will differ from professor to professor and from assignment to assignment. This flexibility recognizes that professors need to vary their approaches as they assist students with differing levels of competence to meet the outcomes of the course.

Mid-Term Grades

At mid-term one of the following grades will be assigned:

S Satisfactory performance to the time of mid-term grade assignment (does not indicate successful completion of the course)

U Unsatisfactory performance to the time of mid-term grade assignment (does not indicate unsuccessful completion of the course)

F The course must be repeated; minimal performance has resulted in the course outcomes not being met

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Attendance:
Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.

VII. COURSE OUTLINE ADDENDUM

The provisions in the addendum are located on the student portal and form part of this course outline. Students are responsible for becoming familiar with this information. Go to https://my.saultcollege.ca
