

COURSE OUTLINE: CYC157 - ADDICTIONS

Prepared: CYC Faculty

Approved: Karen Hudson, Dean, Community Services and Interdisciplinary Studies

Program Number: Name 1065: CHILD AND YOUTH CARE Department: CHILD AND YOUTH WORKER Academic Year: 2024-2025 Course Description: This course addresses the role of the Child and Youth Care Practitioner in supporting children, youth and families impacted by addictions, the continuum of substance use, abuse and dependence. Students will develop an understanding of substance use, abuse and dependence. Students will develop an understanding of substance use, abuse and the impact of substance dependence. Students will develop an understanding of substance use, abuse and the fundamental of work in Child and Youth Care Perspective. Major categories of drugs, their effects and withdrawal symptoms will be introduced. Studies will include the effects and consequences of substance dependence and addiction and introduction to the fundamental of work in Child and Youth care will be covered. Total Credits: 3 Hours/Week: 3 Total Hours: 42 Perequisites: There are no pre-requisites for this course. Coreguisites: There are no cr-requisites for this course. Vocational Learning Outcomes (VLO's) 1065: CHILD AND YOUTH CARE VLo 1 Develop and maintain therapeutic relationships with children, youth and their families, respecting their unique life spaces, and applying the principles of relational practice to meet their needs VLO 3 Develop and implement care and intervention plans. VLO 4	Course Code: Title	CYC157: ADDICTIONS: EVIDENCE INFORMED PRACTICE
Academic Year: 2024-2025 Course Description: This course addresses the role of the Child and Youth Care Practitioner in supporting children, youth and families impacted by addictions, the continuum of substance use and the impact of substance dependence on individuals and as a social issue, from a Child and Youth Care perspective. Major categories of drugs, their effects and withdrawal symptoms will be introduced. Studies will include the effects and consequences of substance dependence and addiction on the individual and the family. The continuum of treatment services, theories of addiction and introduction to the fundamental of work in Child and Youth care will be covered. Total Credits: 3 Hours/Week: 3 Total Hours: 42 Prerequisites: There are no pre-requisites for this course. Corguisites: There are no cr-requisites for this course. Vocational Learning Outcomes (VLO*) 1065 - CHILD AND YOUTH CARE VL0.1 Develop and maintain therapeutic relationships with children, youth and their families, respecting their unique life spaces, and applying the principles of relational practice to meet their needs VL0.3 Develop and maintain therapeutic relationships with children, youth and their families, using methods grounded in theoretical frameworks, research and their families. Using methods grounded in theoretical frameworks, research and their families. Using methods frameworks, as well as cultural humility, to create positive and sustainable solutions and respond to inequities and to systemic barriers experienced by children, youth, and their	Program Number: Name	1065: CHILD AND YOUTH CARE
Course Description: This course addresses the role of the Child and Youth Care Practitioner in supporting children, youth and families impacted by addictions, the continuum of substance use, abuse and dependence on individuals an as a social issue, from a Child and Youth Care perspective. Major categories of drugs, their effects and withdrawal symptoms will be introduced. Studies will include the effects and consequences of substance dependence and addiction on the individual and the family. The continuum of treatment services, theories of addiction and introduction to the fundamental of work in Child and Youth Care Will be covered. Total Credits: 3 Hours/Week: 3 Total Hours: 42 Prerequisites: There are no pre-requisites for this course. Coregulisites: There are no co-requisites for this course. Vocational Learning Outcomes (VLO's) addressed in this course: 1065 - CHILD AND YOUTH CARE VLO 1 Develop and maintain therapeutic relationships with children, youth and their families, using methods grounded in theoretical frameworks, research and theiraputic practices to estends of children, youth, and their families, using methods grounded in theoretical frameworks, research and therapeutic practices, to develop care and intervention plans. VLO 3 Develop and minitamiles. VLO 4. Seess the strength-based frameworks, seesarch and theiraputic mileu using evidence-informed practices and research to provide support for children, youth, and their families. VLO 4 Useequitable and inclusive approcaches that are anti-colonial, anti-opp	Department:	CHILD AND YOUTH WORKER youth and families impacted by addictions, the continuum of substance use and the impact of substance dependence. Students will develop an understanding of substance use and the dependence on individuals and as a social issue, from a Child and Youth Care perspective. Major categories of drugs, their effects and withdrawal symptoms will be introduced. Studies will 	Academic Year:	2024-2025
Hours/Week:3Hours:42Prerequisites:There are no pre-requisites for this course.Corequisites:There are no co-requisites for this course.Vocational Learning Outcomes (VLO's) addressed in this course:1065 - CHILD AND YOUTH CAREVlo2 in this course:Presequisites or program web page for a complete listing of program outcomes where applicable.1065 - CHILD AND YOUTH CAREVlO2Assess the strengths, developmental and holistic needs of children, youth and their families, using methods grounded in theoretical frameworks, research and therapeutic practices, to develop care and intervention plans.VLO3Develop and implement care and intervention plans.VLO4Use equitable and inclusive approaches that are anti-colonial, anti-oppressive, anti-racist, and strength-based frameworks, as well as cultural humility, to create positive and sustainable solutions and respond to inequities and to systemic barriers experienced by children, youth and their families.VLO5Advocate for, and in solidarity with, children, youth, their families and communities through their participation in the development and implementation of care and intervention plans that uphold their rights.VLO5Employ communication, collaboration and relational skills with the inter-professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professi	Course Description:	youth and families impacted by addictions, the continuum of substance use and the impact of substance dependence. Students will develop an understanding of substance use, abuse and dependence on individuals an as a social issue, from a Child and Youth Care perspective. Major categories of drugs, their effects and withdrawal symptoms will be introduced. Studies wil include the effects and consequences of substance dependence and addiction on the individual and the family. The continuum of treatment services, theories of addiction and introduction to
Total Hours: 42 Prerequisites: There are no pre-requisites for this course. Corequisites: There are no co-requisites for this course. Vocational Learning Outcomes (VLO's) addressed in this course: 1065 - CHILD AND YOUTH CARE VL0 1 Develop and maintain therapeutic relationships with children, youth and their families, respecting their unique life spaces, and applying the principles of relational practice to meet their needs VL0 2 Assess the strengths, developmental and holistic needs of children, youth and their families, using methods grounded in theoretical frameworks, research and therapeutic practices, to develop care and intervention plans. VL0 3 Develop and implement care and intervention plans appropriate for the therapeutic milieu using evidence-informed practices and research to provide support for children, youth, and their families. VL0 4 Use equitable and inclusive approaches that are anti-colonial, anti-oppressive, anti-racist, and strength-based frameworks, as well as cultural humility, to create positive and sustainable solutions and respond to inequities and to systemic barriers experienced by children, youth and their families. VL0 5 Advocate for, and in solidarity with, children, youth, their families and communities through their participation in the development and implementation of care and intervention plans that uphold their rights. VL0 6 Employ communication, collaboration and relational skills with the inter-professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professionalism of <th>Total Credits:</th> <th>3</th>	Total Credits:	3
Prerequisites: There are no pre-requisites for this course. Corequisites: There are no co-requisites for this course. Vocational Learning Outcomes (VLO's) addressed in this course: 1065 - CHILD AND YOUTH CARE VL0 1 Develop and maintain therapeutic relationships with children, youth and their families, respecting their unique life spaces, and applying the principles of relational practice to meet their needs VL0 2 Assess the strengths, developmental and holistic needs of children, youth and their families, using methods grounded in theoretical frameworks, research and therapeutic practices, to develop care and intervention plans. VL0 3 Develop and implement care and intervention plans appropriate for the therapeutic milieu using evidence-informed practices and research to provide support for children, youth, and their families. VL0 4 Use equitable and inclusive approaches that are anti-colonial, anti-oppressive, anti-racist, and strength-based frameworks, as well as cultural humility, to create positive and sustainable solutions and respond to inequities and to systemic barriers experienced by children, youth and their families. VL0 5 Advocate for, and in solidarity with, children, youth, their families and communities through their participation in the development and implementation of care and intervention plans that uphold their rights. VL0 6 Employ communication, collaboration and relational skills with the inter-professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professionalism of	Hours/Week:	3
Corequisites: There are no co-requisites for this course. Vocational Learning Outcomes (VLO's) addressed in this course: 1065 - CHILD AND YOUTH CARE Please refer to program web page for a complete listing of program outcomes where applicable. VLO 1 Develop and maintain therapeutic relationships with children, youth and their families, respecting their unique life spaces, and applying the principles of relational practice to meet their needs VLO 2 Assess the strengths, developmental and holistic needs of children, youth and their families, using methods grounded in theoretical frameworks, research and therapeutic practices, to develop care and intervention plans. VLO 3 Develop and implement care and intervention plans appropriate for the therapeutic milieu using evidence-informed practices and research to provide support for children, youth, and their families. VLO 4 Use equitable and inclusive approaches that are anti-colonial, anti-oppressive, anti-racist, and strength-based frameworks, as well as cultural humility, to create positive and sustainable solutions and respond to inequities and to systemic barriers experienced by children, youth and their families. VLO 5 Advocate for, and in solidarity with, children, youth, their families and communities through their participation in the development and implementation of care and intervention plans that uphold their rights. VLO 6 Employ communication, collaboration and relational skills with the inter-professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professionalism of	Total Hours:	42
 Vocational Learning Outcomes (VLO's) addressed in this course: Please refer to program web page for a complete listing of program outcomes where applicable. VLO 1 Develop and maintain therapeutic relationships with children, youth and their families, respecting their unique life spaces, and applying the principles of relational practice to meet their needs VLO 2 Assess the strengths, developmental and holistic needs of children, youth and their families, using methods grounded in theoretical frameworks, research and therapeutic practices, to develop care and intervention plans. VLO 3 Develop and implement care and intervention plans appropriate for the therapeutic milieu using evidence-informed practices and research to provide support for children, youth, and their families. VLO 4 Use equitable and inclusive approaches that are anti-colonial, anti-oppressive, anti-racist, and strength-based frameworks, as well as cultural humility, to create positive and sustainable solutions and respond to inequities and to systemic barriers experienced by children, youth and their families. VLO 5 Advocate for, and in solidarity with, children, youth, their families and communities through their participation in the development and implementation of care and intervention plans that uphold their rights. VLO 6 Employ communication, collaboration and relational skills with the inter-professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professionalism of 	Prerequisites:	There are no pre-requisites for this course.
Outcomes (VLO's) addressed in this course:VLO 1Develop and maintain therapeutic relationships with children, youth and their families, respecting their unique life spaces, and applying the principles of relational practice to meet their needsPlease refer to program outcomes where applicable.VLO 2Assess the strengths, developmental and holistic needs of children, youth and their families, using methods grounded in theoretical frameworks, research and therapeutic practices, to develop care and intervention plans.VLO 3Develop and implement care and intervention plans appropriate for the therapeutic milieu using evidence-informed practices and research to provide support for children, youth, and their families.VLO 4Use equitable and inclusive approaches that are anti-colonial, anti-oppressive, anti-racist, and strength-based frameworks, as well as cultural humility, to create positive and sustainable solutions and respond to inequities and to systemic barriers experienced by children, youth and their families.VLO 5Advocate for, and in solidarity with, children, youth, their families and communities through their participation in the development and implementation of care and intervention plans that uphold their rights.VLO 6Employ communication, collaboration and relational skills with the inter-professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professionalism of	Corequisites:	There are no co-requisites for this course.
addressed in this course: VLO 1 Develop and manualit therapeutic relationships with children, youth and their families, respecting their unique life spaces, and applying the principles of relational practice to meet their needs Please refer to program web page for a complete listing of program outcomes where applicable. VLO 2 Assess the strengths, developmental and holistic needs of children, youth and their families, using methods grounded in theoretical frameworks, research and therapeutic practices, to develop care and intervention plans. VLO 3 Develop and implement care and intervention plans appropriate for the therapeutic milieu using evidence-informed practices and research to provide support for children, youth, and their families. VLO 4 Use equitable and inclusive approaches that are anti-colonial, anti-oppressive, anti-racist, and strength-based frameworks, as well as cultural humility, to create positive and sustainable solutions and respond to inequities and to systemic barriers experienced by children, youth and their families. VLO 5 Advocate for, and in solidarity with, children, youth, their families and communities through their participation in the development and implementation of care and intervention plans that uphold their rights. VLO 6 Employ communication, collaboration and relational skills with the inter-professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professionalism of		1065 - CHILD AND YOUTH CARE for a complete listing of program outcomes where applicable.VLO 2Assess the strengths, developmental and holistic needs of children, youth and their families, using methods grounded in theoretical frameworks, research and therapeutic practices, to develop care and intervention plans.VLO 3Develop and implement care and intervention plans appropriate for the therapeutic milieu using evidence-informed practices and research to provide support for children, youth, and their families.VLO 4Use equitable and inclusive approaches that are anti-colonial, anti-oppressive, anti-racist, and strength-based frameworks, as well as cultural humility, to create positive and sustainable solutions and respond to inequities and to systemic barriers experienced by children, youth and their families.VLO 5Advocate for, and in solidarity with, children, youth, their families and communities through their participation in the development and implementation of care and intervention plans that uphold their rights.VLO 6Employ communication, collaboration and relational skills with the inter-professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professionalism of	addressed in this course:	families, respecting their unique life spaces, and applying the principles of relational milieu using evidence-informed practices and research to provide support for children, youth, and their families. VLO 4 Use equitable and inclusive approaches that are anti-colonial, anti-oppressive, anti-racist, and strength-based frameworks, as well as cultural humility, to create positive and sustainable solutions and respond to inequities and to systemic barriers experienced by children, youth and their families. VLO 5 Advocate for, and in solidarity with, children, youth, their families and communities through their participation in the development and implementation of care and intervention plans that uphold their rights. VLO 6 Employ communication, collaboration and relational skills with the inter-professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professionalism of 	for a complete listing of program	families, using methods grounded in theoretical frameworks, research and anti-racist, and strength-based frameworks, as well as cultural humility, to create positive and sustainable solutions and respond to inequities and to systemic barriers experienced by children, youth and their families. VLO 5 Advocate for, and in solidarity with, children, youth, their families and communities through their participation in the development and implementation of care and intervention plans that uphold their rights. VLO 6 Employ communication, collaboration and relational skills with the inter-professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professionalism of 		milieu using evidence-informed practices and research to provide support for through their participation in the development and implementation of care and intervention plans that uphold their rights.VLO 6Employ communication, collaboration and relational skills with the inter-professional team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professionalism of		anti-racist, and strength-based frameworks, as well as cultural humility, to create positive and sustainable solutions and respond to inequities and to systemic barriers team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professionalism of		through their participation in the development and implementation of care and team and with community partners to ensure and enhance the professionalism of

SAULT COLLEGE | 443 NORTHERN AVENUE | SAULT STE. MARIE, ON P6B 4J3, CANADA | 705-759-2554

	VLO 7		iry, relational inquiry and critical reflection to develop strategies
	VLO 8	•	practice of self-care, as a practitioner. evelopment resources and supervision to increase professional capacity, learning a	nd leadership skills.
	VLO 9		egislation and Child and Youth Care standards of practice, codes of ethics as a practitioner.
	VLO 12	Indigenous, Black, a disabled communitie	ty to work with children, youth and families who identify with and racialized communities, as well as people in LGBTQ2+ and es, by identifying systemic inequities and barriers, integrating auma-informed care, and respecting their inherent rights to Essential Employability Skills (EES) addressed in	EES 1		ly, concisely and correctly in the written, spoken, and visual form ose and meets the needs of the audience.
this course:	EES 2	Respond to written, communication.	spoken, or visual messages in a manner that ensures effective
	EES 4	Apply a systematic	approach to solve problems.
	EES 5	Use a variety of thin	king skills to anticipate and solve problems.
	EES 6	Locate, select, orga and information sys	nize, and document information using appropriate technology tems.
	EES 7	Analyze, evaluate, a	and apply relevant information from a variety of sources.
	EES 8	Show respect for the others.	e diverse opinions, values, belief systems, and contributions of
	EES 9		in groups or teams that contribute to effective working e achievement of goals.
	EES 10	Manage the use of	time and other resources to complete projects.
	EES 11	Take responsibility	for ones own actions, decisions, and consequences.
Course Evaluation:	Passing	Grade: 50%, D
	A minimu for gradu		.0 or higher where program specific standards exist is required
Course Outcomes and Learning Objectives:	Course	Outcome 1	Learning Objectives for Course Outcome 1
	1. Unde	rstand and apply the	1.1 Understand and define the key aspects of relational es of relational	practice 1.2 Understand and apply the Strength-Based approach
	L 12	-based approach to	1.3 Identify and apply strategies related to these approaches 1.4 Link the strength approach to therapeutic outcomes
	Course	Outcome 2	Learning Objectives for Course Outcome 2
	issues a children chemica families respond	fy the complex ind risk factors of and youth in ally dependent including how to to the strengths ds of children and	2.1 Describe a number of critical issues in chemically dependent families2.2 Understand the issues and implications involved2.3 Identify the probable risk factors in chemically dependent families

SAULT COLLEGE | 443 NORTHERN AVENUE | SAULT STE. MARIE, ON P6B 4J3, CANADA | 705-759-2554

youth in order to promote positive change	2.4 Recognize the role of resiliency in individuals and families
Course Outcome 3	Learning Objectives for Course Outcome 3
inter-relationship among family, social service, justice and community systems on children, youth as it relates to substance abuse and	 wy outh at risk yy outh at risk yy
Course Outcome 4	Learning Objectives for Course Outcome 4
interventions using evidence-informed practices to enhance development in children, youth and their families dealing with	 4.1 Identify and discuss the theoretical/empirical basis for interventions 4.2 Distinguish formal and informal support systems 4.3 Identify formal and informal supports available 4.4 Identify strength-based therapeutic activities and programs that account for age, developmental status, cultural and/or ethnic background
Course Outcome 5	Learning Objectives for Course Outcome 5
teamwork and organizational skills to enhance the quality of service in child and youth care practice	 5.1 Communicate clearly, concisely and correctly in the written, spoken and visual form 5.2 Respond to written, spoken or visual messages in a manner that ensures effective communication 5.3 Utilize appropriate technology and information systems (e.g. use of D2L to submit and complete assignments), to promote professional communication and person-centered care. 5.4 Show respect for the diverse opinions, values, belief

Evaluation Process and Grading System:	Evaluation Type	Evaluation Weight
Grading System.	Assignments	40%
	Participation and Professional Practice	20%
	Tests	40%
Date:	June 21, 2024
Addendum:	Please refer to the course outline addendum on the Learning Management System for furthe information.

SAULT COLLEGE | 443 NORTHERN AVENUE | SAULT STE. MARIE, ON P6B 4J3, CANADA | 705-759-2554