I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

In this course students will analyze specific elements of selected criminal code offences. These include offences against the person, against property and against public order. Students will research case law and assess its impact on criminal offences and use case law to argue or defend decisions. From selected case studies students will be required to suggest investigative and crime prevention strategies.

II. COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course, students will demonstrate the ability to:

1 Locate, interpret and apply Statute and Case Law related to selected offences against persons, property and public order:

- 1.1 Define selected terms
- 1.2 Locate, in the criminal code, pertinent sections related to offences against the person, property, or public order
- 1.3 Interpret offences, punishment and definitions section related to offences against the person, property or public order
- 1.4 Locate in the criminal code and reported cases, case law related to offences against the person, property or public order
- 1.5 Assess the impact of case law related to offences against the person, property or public order on the police process related to the investigation of these types of occurrences
- 1.6 Identify possible defences applicable in given situations

2 Analyze offences against the person, property or public order by applying the basic principles of Criminal Law:

- 2.1 Identify the facts in issue (proof of the substantive offence) for offences against the person, property or public order
- 2.2 Identify the role of each of the participants
- 2.3 Interpret potential defences that may be applicable
- 2.4 Utilize investigative practices learned in other police foundations courses to build the case
- 2.5 Defend or argue a decision, using statute and case law to support your stance
- 2.6 Suggest procedures to prevent these types of occurrences.

3.0 Prepare required documentation for the completion of crown briefs with respect to offences against the person, property or public order. From given factual situations:

- 3.1 Complete required documentation for arrest or release by officer or officer in charge
- 3.2 Complete documentation with respect to court appearances of victims and witnesses

Students enrolled in Police Foundations or Law and Security Administration programs will require a minimum of 60% (C) as a passing grade in each course.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.

It is the departmental policy that once the classroom door has been closed, the learning process has begun. Late arrivers will not be granted admission to the room.

Courses outline amendments:

The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

VII. COURSE OUTLINE ADDENDUM:
