

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course builds on the learning outcomes of Fitness and Lifestyle Management I and II which focus on wellness and the development of a healthy lifestyle.

Topics include: positive lifestyle choices, self-management and behaviour change techniques, managing stress and shift work, exercise prescription and group leadership. Through participation in in-class fitness activities and self directed fitness training, students will work towards improving their fitness level and meeting the employment standards on law enforcement specific fitness tests.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

A. LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- 1) Apply behaviour management strategies to enhance personal wellness, improve job performance, and ultimately increase career opportunities
- 2) Design, monitor, and adapt a personal fitness program that addresses the achievement of employment standards
- 3) Demonstrate a knowledge of content and protocol for a variety of employment specific tests in criminal justice
- 4) Demonstrate leadership qualities and skills when dealing with class activities
- 5) Demonstrate knowledge of stress, critical incidents and post-traumatic stress disorder and the role exercise and relaxation techniques can play in management
- 6) Identify physiological, psychological and social effects of shift work and coping strategies for shift work in law enforcement
- 7) Develop and implement personal strategies to manage stress effectively
- 8) Demonstrate an appropriate fitness level in accordance with Ontario Police Standards

B. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Apply behaviour management strategies to enhance personal wellness, improve job performance, and ultimately increase career opportunities

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- apply the nine processes of behaviour change in an attempt to enhance one's level of wellness
- use fitness test information to develop long and short term goals
- complete a behaviour change contract/plan based on goals identified through self- evaluation

2. Design, monitor, and adapt a personal fitness program that addresses the achievement of employment standards

Potential Elements of the Performance

- apply the above knowledge and skills related to the development of physical fitness and design an effective personal fitness program which include:
 - appropriate warm-up and cool-down activities
 - application of the F.I.T.T. formula of exercise prescription for each component of fitness (i.e. frequency, intensity, time and type)
 - training for cardiorespiratory endurance, muscular strength, muscular endurance, flexibility, and body composition improvement
- apply the principle of progressive overload, specificity and rest to ensure that one's fitness program enables the student to achieve the identified employment standards
- complete several fitness tests and alter one's fitness program appropriately in response to fitness results
- describe alternate exercise practices to ensure lifetime fitness participation

3. Demonstrate knowledge of content and protocol of a variety of employment readiness tests in criminal justice.

Potential Elements of the Performance

- describe BFOR testing
- identify major components and rules of PARE, PREP, POPAT, COPAT, OPC and PEEL regional testing
- identify the specific test for each police force
- describe minimum fitness requirements to be successful at each test.

4. Demonstrate leadership qualities and skills when dealing with class activities

Potential Elements of the Performance

- arrive on time, participate fully
- help with equipment
- report on group attendance
- relay information to team members
- take initiative to begin training/warm-ups
- acts in a manner that encourages fellow classmates

5. Identify and apply the concepts related to stress and stress management to one's personal life.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Define the terms stress and stressor
- Define and give examples of eustress, distress and optimal stress
- List stressors in daily life
- Describe the kinds of stress law enforcement personnel face
- Describe the short and long term harmful effects of too much stress as well as the effects of chronic exposure to stress
- Contrast Type A, Type B and Type C behaviour patterns and modification techniques
- Explain why exercise is an ideal strategy for managing stress
- Explain what a critical incident is, how it can cause stress for law enforcement personnel, and how the stress should be handled.
- Identify the factors that affect responses to critical incidents
- Explain what post-traumatic stress disorder is, how to recognize someone suffering from it, and what you can do to help an individual
- Explain how the following lifestyle behaviours/characteristics impact our experience of stress: eating habits, time management, alcohol, drugs and cigarette use, sleeping habits, satisfying relationships, seeking help and support of others, balancing work and play

6. Identify the physiological, psychological and social effects of shift work and describe coping strategies.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Describe trends in the workforce related to non-traditional hours
- Identify the effects of shift work
- Describe the importance of sleep
- Identify coping strategies like manipulating diet, light, physical activity, power napping and using your circadian rhythm to your advantage

7. Develop and implement personal strategies to manage personnel fitness effectively

Potential Elements of the Performance

- maintain a training record
- maintain a personnel training program including all components of health related fitness

8. Demonstrate an appropriate fitness level in accordance with Ontario Police Standards

Potential Elements of the Performance

- demonstrate the PREP at obstacle course at 2 min and 42 seconds with the Push Pull machine at the minimum load of 70 pounds or demonstrate an understanding of the type of training required to complete this test successfully given the students ability at the present time
- demonstrate the PREP Shuttle Run at the level of 6.5 or demonstrate an understanding of the type of training required to complete the shuttle run successfully given the students ability at this time

- demonstrate the PARE at 4 minutes and 40 seconds with the Push Pull machine at the minimum of 70 pounds or demonstrate an understanding of the type of training required to complete the PARE test successfully given the students ability at this time
- demonstrate 20 min run at the college standard of less than 2:00 per Tadcaster lap or train at an appropriate level and demonstrate some degree of improvement over three weeks
- demonstrate 60% score on push-up, sit-ups and sit and reach tests or demonstrate the ability to design and implement a program to achieve this goal given the present scores of the student
- demonstrate ability to press, pull and squat a total of 600 lbs (males) or 450 lbs (females) for a 5 repetition maximum or demonstrate the ability to design and implement a program to achieve this goal given the present scores of the student

III. TOPICS:

- 1) Behaviour Management
- 2) Exercise Prescription and Program Design
- 3) Coping with Stress
- 4) Coping with Shift Work

IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES/TEXTS/MATERIALS:

No text required.

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM:

Physical Fitness Testing	40%
In Class Activities	40%
Written Tests	20%
Total	100%

Students will be given the option to weight the grade more heavily in one of the above three areas or to use the standard evaluation as outlined above. The grading options will be described in the first week of classes. All options must be chosen and completed in the timelines given by the professor.

Missed Tests and Late Assignments

The PREP and PARE test cannot be set up for alternate testing in any circumstance. All students are expected to complete two PREP and two PARE tests. The second test each term is used to determine the student’s grade. Only medical emergencies and extreme circumstances will warrant the use of alternate evaluations for students.

The student is given an in class assignment each day. Students are expected to attend each class.
