V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM:

Assignment/Exam	Weight(%)	Due Date (estimated, specific dates to be given during the semester by the instructor)
Chapter Reading Notes	20%	As Assigned
Mid-Term Exam	25%	Week 8
Issue Presentation	30%	Week 13
Final Exam	25%	Week 15
TOTAL	100%

There will be a MID-TERM and a FINAL EXAM. The first exam will cover the first half of the semester and the second exam will be based on the remaining material after midterm. Students should use their Chapter Reading Notes as source of study material for these exams. Exams cannot be re-written to receive a higher grade. Students who miss the exam without making prior arrangements with the instructor will be given a zero on the exam.

CHAPTER READING NOTES: To better prepare you in your understanding of the course material and discussion of related issues, it is important to prepare prior to class time. Chapter Reading Guidelines will be made available on the LMS course site and completed Notes will be submitted on the day of class discussion of that chapter. Completed Reading Notes will create excellent study notes for course exams and reference material for the Issues Presentation. Specific requirements for this assignment will be provided by the Professor.

The ISSUES PRESENTATION will provide students with the opportunity to research, develop, present and submit an informative response to a specific and current issue facing First Nations people. The students will be assigned groups to accomplish this assignment. Each group will be given 20-30 minutes to present their research and what they have gained from it. The presentations will examine the ramifications of this issue from the perspective of all of the groups/people affected by the issue. Information should include Aboriginal service organizations and/or political organizations involved with the issue. Historical and current information regarding the issue should be included. As well, each group should prepare a brief survey of awareness and opinion of the issue to a minimum of 20 people; results of the survey are to be presented. Delivery of the presentation must include a PowerPoint of the material presented. At least 3 different sources must be used for this research. All sources should be referenced in a Resource Page. It will be created in APA style and submitted to the professor on the day of the presentation. The professor will provide further details.

Student groups will choose from the following topics for their Presentation:

- Land Claims/Modern Treaties
- Canadian Aboriginal Peoples and the Justice System
- Canadian Aboriginal Peoples and Health Care
- Canadian Aboriginal Peoples and Child Welfare
- Canadian Aboriginal Peoples and the Educational System (excluding Residential Schools)
- Residential Schools
- Inuit of the North
- Canadian Métis

The following semester grades will be assigned to students in post-secondary courses:

X	A temporary grade limited to situations with extenuating circumstances giving a student additional time to complete the requirements for a course.
NR	Grade not reported to Registrar's office.
W	Student has withdrawn from the course without academic penalty.

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

ALL Students must attend 60% of scheduled classes to attain a passing grade in this course. Assignments must be submitted in typewritten format. A late assignment will be accepted up to five days late (with instructor's approval) and will be penalized 1% /day late. No assignments can be submitted for grades after the fifth late day.

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.

VII. COURSE OUTLINE ADDENDUM:

The provisions in the addendum are located on the student portal and form part of this course outline.
