

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

There is an undeniable link between healthy family structure and a healthy community life. To work effectively in the community, we must be aware of both healthy and unhealthy family dynamics and situations. This course will allow the CICE student to explore changes in the Native family structure and issues challenging all families, including family violence.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the CICE student, with the assistance of an Educational Assistant will demonstrate a basic ability to:

1. Identify challenges that Native families experience when attempting to adapt “pre-contact” child-rearing techniques in today’s society.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Understand common “pre-contact” family and community roles and lifestyles
- Differentiate between individual First Nation peoples (i.e. Ojibwe, Iroquois, Cree)
- Connect concept of community as caretaker to idea of family

2. Uncover the roots of current Native family issues in the North American Native experience

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Identify various catalysts which changed First Nations family structures and community
- Begin to comprehend the role of Residential Schools in the breakdown of First Nations family structure
- Connect First Nations historical experience with “contact” to current First Nations issues related to family and community

3. Anticipate the needs of individuals/families who exhibit characteristics/situational clues of the dynamics of family violence.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Understand concepts of Family of Origin, dealing with change and role of family
- Construct a personal and professional understanding of the dynamics of spousal violence, child abuse and elder abuse
- Integrate knowledge of all types of family violence with Canadian First Nations experience

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM:

The following semester grades will be assigned to students in postsecondary courses:

		Target Dates Week of...
Two Case Studies (2 x 15% each)	30%	Oct.20 and Nov. 24
Genogram Assignment	5%	Oct. 6
Test #1	20%	Oct. 13
Cycle of Abuse & Recovery Project	5%	Nov. 17
Report on Elder Abuse	20%	Dec. 8
Test #2	20%	Dec. 15

Total 100 %

- There are two (2) case studies completed for this course. Each case study will be provided during class time to enable “case conferencing” with small groups. The completed papers will be worked on individually and handed in. Specifics on process and format will be provided in class, and reinforced by the Educational Assistant working with the CICE student.
- Two (2) tests will be given in this course. The first will cover information up to the date of the test. The second test will cover information taken in the second half of the course; it will NOT cover information from the beginning of the course. Tests CANNOT be rewritten in order to obtain a higher grade. Tests may be rescheduled, at the discretion of the instructor, for substantiated reasons for absence on test day. Students who miss a test MUST make rescheduling arrangements direct and IMMEDIATELY with the instructor.
- The Genogram Assignment is an independent project which will be completed under the supervision of the instructor, and overseen by the Educational Assistant during scheduled class times, as well as tutoring sessions. Genograms are used in the social service field to chart family history. Specifics on process and format will be provided in class.
- Students will create their own representation of the Cycle of Abuse/Cycle of Recovery. Format and specifics to be given in class.

Report on Elder Abuse will be 3 – 5 typewritten pages. Your report will identify different kinds of elder abuse and dynamics of family interaction. Specifics on format and content to be given in class by instructor.

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your instructor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit the Special Needs office so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of course outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course/program, as may be decided by the professor/dean. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Course outline amendments:

The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the professor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean's secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.

1. An Integrative Educational Assistant will attend class with the student(s) to assist with inclusion in the class and to take notes.
2. Students will receive support in and outside of the classroom (i.e. tutoring, assistance with homework and assignments, preparation for exams, tests and quizzes.)
3. Study notes will be geared to test content and style which will match with modified learning outcomes.
4. Although the Integrative Educational Assistant may not attend all classes with the student(s), support will always be available. When the Integrative Educational Assistant does attend classes he/she will remain as inconspicuous as possible.

CICE Modifications:A. Tests may be modified in the following ways:

1. Tests which require essay answers may be modified to short answers.
2. Short answer questions may be changed to multiple choice or the question may be simplified so the answer will reflect a basic understanding.
3. Tests which use fill in the blank format may be modified to include a few choices for each question, or a list of choices for all questions. This will allow the student to match or use visual clues.
4. Tests in the T/F or multiple choice format may be modified by rewording or clarifying statements into layman's or simplified terms. Multiple choice questions may have a reduced number of choices.

B. Tests will be written in the Learning Assistance Centre with assistance from an Integrative Educational Assistant.The Integrative Educational Assistant may:

1. Read the test question to the student.
2. Paraphrase the test question without revealing any key words or definitions.
3. Transcribe the student's verbal answer.
4. Test length may be reduced and time allowed to complete test may be increased.
