

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course offers theoretical, research and practical information regarding vulnerable people in Canada. The course will provide CICE students, with assistance from a learning Specialist, the opportunity to learn about the needs, barriers and strengths of various populations within Canadian society. CICE students will develop a fundamental understanding of the populations studied and a basic ability to adapt assessment and intervention strategies to address client needs at an individual, family and community level. Emphasis will be on older adults, people with disabilities, children/youth and LGBTQ community.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the CICE student, with the assistance of a Learning Specialist, will demonstrate the basic ability to:

1. Identify social work values, ethics and standards of practice universal to social service work practice with all individuals, families, groups and communities.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Demonstrate knowledge of Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers (OCSWSSW) Code of Ethics
- Demonstrate the incorporation of social work values and standards of practice into applied practice
- Demonstrate ability to apply social work concepts and principles to understanding strengths and challenges of diverse populations
- Demonstrate an understanding of and ability to apply anti-oppressive practice principles
- Demonstrate an understanding of the social construction of ageism, homophobia and ableism and ability to apply effective social work methods to confront and address

2. Identify and utilize interventions that respect diversity and promote strengths, well-being and facilitate positive change in each population studied

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Assess, in collaboration with populations served, the social/emotional needs of individuals and groups
- Demonstrate knowledge of community agencies and programs designed to meet the needs of the identified populations
- Plan selected strategies to foster therapeutic relationships
- Identify community resources, services offered and referral methods
- Identify appropriate assessment tools within scope of practice of social service work
- Ability to conduct an interview using interviewing skills and knowledge of the population
- Identify how to evaluate success of the results of strategies and how to make necessary adaptations based on outcomes

3. Understand the strengths and challenges for each population studied utilizing an ecological framework

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Utilize a biopsychosocial-spiritual and multi-level (micro, mezzo and macro) approach to assess and plan supports and interventions
- Demonstrate ability to understand risk and protective factors relevant to each population
- Identify and articulate strengths and challenges, risk and protective factors relevant to social service practice and support of individuals, families and communities
- Identify and understand the social determinants of health that impact each population

4. Identify and implement strategies that promote client advocacy and community education to enhance the resilience, strengths and abilities of each population studied

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Demonstrate ability to use professional literature and research to locate credible data on populations served
- Demonstrate ability to identify and address areas of strengths and risk within each population
- Identify existing community resources available to each

population

5. Perform ongoing self-assessment to enhance professional competence

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Develop working awareness of personal values and beliefs in relation to populations served
- Integrate self-assessment into regular practice by expressing in verbal or written form personal thoughts and reactions to course materials in a professional, respectful manner
- Develop a personal plan to address potential biases that may negatively impact on professional practice or that are incongruent with social work ethics and values

III. TOPICS: The course will include, but may not be limited to, the following topics (additional topics will be discussed as time permits/need is identified)

1. Demographics of each population
2. Both common and unique strengths and needs of each population in relation to social determinants, quality of life, social support and advocacy
3. Community services/supports and referral methods
4. Effective engagement, interviewing, assessment, intervention and referral strategies relevant to each population
5. Role of SSW's in supporting individuals and groups within each population
6. Developing ability to resource self as a professional to learn about and keep updated on needs of/effective interventions related to each population

Student Success: College Practice Statement

If a faculty member determines that a student is at risk of not being academically successful, the faculty member may confidentially provide that student's name to Student Services in an effort to help with the student's success. Students wishing to restrict the sharing of such information should make their wishes known to the coordinator or faculty member.

Student Success: SSW Professor Approach

This professor will explain the student success strategy to students. The professor will request students sign a SSW Program Consent/Authorization to determine permission to release pertinent information to Student Services in order to promote and support student success and retention.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session. Late arrivers are welcome to join the class after the first break. Students who miss more than 70% of class time may be issued a failing grade or their mark will be reduced by one grade if less than 70% of classes are attended.

Students are expected to learn and display professional social service worker behaviours. The classroom is an excellent place to begin to practice these. These behaviours are attached in the 'Professional Development and Participation Guidelines'. If everyone in the class develops and uses these skills, we will have a safe and respectful environment to explore and discuss many issues.

Addendum:

Further modifications may be required as needed as the semester progresses based on individual student(s) abilities and must be discussed with and agreed upon by the instructor.

VII. COURSE OUTLINE ADDENDUM:

The provisions contained in the addendum located on the portal form part of this course outline.

CICE Modifications:

Preparation and Participation

1. A Learning Specialist will attend class with the student(s) to assist with inclusion in the class and to take notes.
2. Students will receive support in and outside of the classroom (i.e. tutoring, assistance with homework and assignments, preparation for exams, tests and quizzes.)
3. Study notes will be geared to test content and style which will match with modified learning outcomes.
4. Although the Learning Specialist may not attend all classes with the student(s), support will always be available. When the Learning Specialist does attend classes he/she will remain as inconspicuous as possible.

A. Tests may be modified in the following ways:

1. Tests, which require essay answers, may be modified to short answers.
2. Short answer questions may be changed to multiple choice or the question may be simplified so the answer will reflect a basic understanding.
3. Tests, which use fill in the blank format, may be modified to include a few choices for each question, or a list of choices for all questions. This will allow the student to match or use visual clues.
4. Tests in the T/F or multiple choice format may be modified by rewording or clarifying statements into layman's or simplified terms. Multiple choice questions may have a reduced number of choices.

B. Tests will be written in CICE office with assistance from a Learning Specialist.

The Learning Specialist may:

1. Read the test question to the student.
2. Paraphrase the test question without revealing any key words or definitions.
3. Transcribe the student's verbal answer.
4. Test length may be reduced and time allowed to complete test may be increased.

C. Assignments may be modified in the following ways:

1. Assignments may be modified by reducing the amount of information required while maintaining general concepts.
2. Some assignments may be eliminated depending on the number of assignments required in the particular course.

The Learning Specialist may:

1. Use a question/answer format instead of essay/research format
2. Propose a reduction in the number of references required for an assignment

3. Assist with groups to ensure that student comprehends his/her role within the group
4. Require an extension on due dates due to the fact that some students may require additional time to process information
5. Formally summarize articles and assigned readings to isolate main points for the student
6. Use questioning techniques and paraphrasing to assist in student comprehension of an assignment

D. Evaluation:

Is reflective of modified learning outcomes.
