PROGRAM: Mental Retardation Counsellor COURSE NO: MRC 211-0
TITLE OF COURSE: Field Seminar DATE: September 1983
INSTRUCTOR: Gerry Page

Purpose:

This course is designed to assist students in communicating issues that will or are affecting them in the field. Students will be encouraged to express ideas and concepts for service delivery for the developmentally handicapped.

Behavioral Objectives:

After completing this course the student will:

- 1) Have a knowledgeable understanding of different service delivery models.
- 2) Distinguish between Schedule I, II, and III facilities for the developmentally handicapped.
- 3) Gain a better understanding of the career fields available for graduating students.
- 4) Be knowledgeable of the different legislation and standards of both Children's and Adult Services Acts and how these Acts affect their roles as future M.R.C. graduating students.

Methodology:

Guest speakers, films, and recent literature will be used to facilitate discussion and learning. This class will also be used to assist students having difficulties with fieldwork and fieldwork assignments. Because of the nature of this course no formal syllabus will be necessary.

Students will be able to and encouraged to pick subject material for discussion.

Evaluation:

Since this course is part of Fieldwork III students will be required to attend and participate in discussion. Attendance and participation in class will be used as measurement for partial grading of FieldWork III.
