I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Child Care Methodology I will serve as an introductory course to the field of Child and Youth Work. The basic philosophy throughout this course is that there is a set of attitudes, specific knowledge, skills and proficiencies that are uniquely those of the competent Child and Youth Worker. As a group, we will explore three central themes: the child at risk; the environment or settings that serve the child; and the Child and Youth Worker as an agent of therapeutic change.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- 1. Represent one's skills, knowledge and experience as a Child and Youth Worker in training in a realistic and clear manner for personal and professional purposes.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- a. Discuss the development of the Child and Youth work profession relative to the human service delivery system.
- b. List and describe skills and attitudinal factors pertinent to this field.
- c. Identify and describe employment settings for CYW.

- 2. Determine the roles and boundaries of a Child and Youth Worker in the current and evolving human service delivery system.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- a. Demonstrate a familiarity with the role of the Child and Youth Worker in the delivery of service.
- b. Apply the knowledge to simulated situations.

- 3. Foster and utilize therapeutic environments which respect culture and which promote overall well-being and facilitate positive change for children, youths, and their families.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- a. Define specific child management skills pertinent to various treatment modalities - with specific focus on residential, educational and family settings.

- 4. Communicate effectively in oral, written, and nonverbal forms to enhance the quality of service.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- a. Utilize professional terminology where appropriate. (This includes spelling and basic grammar skills.)
- b. Integrate the concept of "role-model" to the classroom setting.

III. TOPICS:

1. History and development of professional Child and Youth Care
2. Current status and future trends of the profession.
3. Concept of emotional disturbance.
4. Concept of resiliency.
5. Impact of exceptional needs on the individual, family and community.
6. Responses to exceptional behaviour, i.e. treatment options.
7. Essential components of "Milieu".
8. Roles and boundaries in Child and Youth Work.

IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES/TEXTS/MATERIALS:

Membership in Ontario Association of Child and Youth Counsellors – $26.75.
(This will be arranged in class.)

Krueger, Mark A. (1988). Intervention techniques for child/youth care workers. Washington: Child Welfare League of America.

Orlick, Dr. Terry (2003). Feeling Great: Teaching Children to Excel at Living. Carp, ON. Creative Bound Inc.

An email address will be submitted to the instructor within the first two weeks of class in order to facilitate communication. Failure to do so may result in important information being missed.

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM.

The class will be taught through a combination of lectures, presentations and group discussion. The format will vary according to material being presented.

- a) Attendance: It is expected that the participant will maintain a level of attendance reflective of a commitment to the learning and to the profession.
- b) To complete assigned reading/research and be prepared to discuss this material in class.
- c) To participate actively and fully in class discussions; to be respectful of your colleagues, the instructor and the material presented.
- d) To be prepared to demonstrate effective intervention techniques through role-play, simulations, and/or critical incident analysis.
- e) To complete in-class tests on the material covered.
- f) To complete and submit or present assignments as per assigned dates There may not be any additional time to do a presentation if you fail to present on your assigned date.

ASSIGNMENTS:

1. Activity Presentation: using the text, Feeling Great, a pair of students will present an activity to the class. The activity should take 5 to 10 minutes and will be presented at the beginning of each class as an “ice-breaker” or warm-up activity. This activity will need to be interactive and may involve the whole class or be a demonstration of the activity. The schedule will be established in the first week of class. Due date is _____. This assignment is worth 10% of your final grade.
2. Journal Summary: Using the web site www.cyc-net.org , each student will select a journal article and write a 2 to 3 page summary of the article including the following points: identify the central issue affecting children or youth; how this impacts on the profession of child and youth work; and your personal reaction to the article. Date due is: _____. This assignment is worth 10% of your final grade.
3. Tests: There will be 4 quizzes (4 x 15%) throughout the course – one quiz each month. Dates are as follows: (See important note re: tests & scheduling that follows.)

September: _____

October: _____

November: _____

December: _____

GRADING:

Activity Presentation	10%
Journal Assignment	10%
Quizzes (15% each x 4)	60%
Attendance and Participation	20%
Total Grade	100%

NOTE: In the event that mid-term grades are not satisfactory, the student will be required to meet with the instructor to develop a strategy whereby academic difficulties may be dealt with and the student may proceed to an overall "passing grade" in the course.

- * It is the student's responsibility to schedule this meeting with the teacher upon receipt of mid-term grades.

An "R" at mid-term is an automatic course repeat.

Tests will be written as scheduled – time (allotted in class) and date. If a student arrives late for a test, they may enter the testing room, provided no student has yet left the room. There will be no extra time allowed to complete the test. It is the students' responsibility to be punctual. There will be no opportunity to write missed tests. There are no 'make-up' assignments or tests. Missing one test need not constitute failure in the course.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Special Needs:

If you are a student with special needs (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your instructor and/or the Special Needs office. Visit the Special Needs office so that support services can be arranged for you.

Retention of course outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Rights and Responsibilities. Students who engage in “academic dishonesty” will receive an automatic failure for that submission and/or such other penalty, up to and including expulsion from the course, as may be decided by the professor. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

The Professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

VII. PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT:

Students who wish to apply for advanced credit in the course should consult the instructor. Credit for prior learning will be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

VIII. DIRECT CREDIT TRANSFERS:

Students who wish to apply for direct credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain a direct credit transfer form from the Dean’s secretary. Students will be required to provide a transcript and course outline related to the course in question.
