I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Child Care Methodology I is an introductory course to the field of Child and Youth Work and to Community Practicum. Students will achieve a beginning familiarity with the body of knowledge, skills, and attitudes that are uniquely those of the competent Child and Youth Worker. Child and Youth Work is an established profession with its own history. It operates within a Code of Ethics and has both provincial (Ontario Association of Child and Youth Counsellors – OACYC,) and national (Canadian Association of Child and Youth Counsellors – CYCC) associations.

In this course, we will explore three central themes: the child at risk; the environment or settings that serve the child; and the Child and Youth Worker as an agent of therapeutic change. This course will also prepare students for fieldwork experiences in educational settings. We introduce the skills and issues concerning observation, reporting, policies and ethics, and confidentiality. This course is a prerequisite to first level placement in the Child and Youth Worker Program.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- 1. Represent one's skills, knowledge and experience as a Child and Youth Worker in training in a realistic and clear manner for personal and professional purposes.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Discuss the development of the Child and Youth Work profession.
- List and describe skills and attitudes pertinent to this field.
- Identify and describe employment settings for CYW.
- Identify learning objectives for one's professional development and the strategies to accomplish these.

- 2. Determine the roles and boundaries of a Child and Youth Worker in the current and evolving human service delivery system.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Demonstrate a familiarity with the role of the Child and Youth Worker in the delivery of service.
- Apply the knowledge to simulated situations.

- 3. Foster and utilize therapeutic environments that respect culture and promote overall well-being and facilitate positive change for children, youth, and their families.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- Define specific child management skills pertinent to various treatment modalities with specific focus on educational, residential, community and family settings.

4. Communicate effectively in oral, written, and nonverbal forms to enhance the quality of service.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- a. Utilize professional terminology where appropriate. (This includes spelling and grammar skills which are supported in your Language and Communication courses.)
- b. Demonstrate and apply the concepts of subjective and objective observations and recording.
- c. Demonstrate professional role-modelling within the classroom setting.
- d. Use language orally and in written reports that applies the methodologies of observation pertinent to a practical setting

5. Perform ongoing self-care to enhance professional competence

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- a. Development of a plan for one's own success
- b. Review the results of one's actions and decisions
- c. Implement corrective action as needed to improve student performance
- d. Examine the impact of personal values and beliefs on actions and decisions
- e. Evaluate and act upon constructive feedback

6. Demonstrate a working knowledge of applicable areas involved in fieldwork training

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- a. Accurately apply relevant policies and procedural requirements to case studies
- b. Define the concepts of confidentiality, professional ethics, prevention and intervention, diversity training

III. TOPICS: (including, but not necessarily limited to the following)

1. History and development of the profession of Child and Youth Work.
2. Current status and future trends of the profession.
3. Concept of emotional and behavioural disturbance or disorder.
4. Concept of resilience and identification of strengths and needs.
5. Impact of exceptional needs on the individual, family and community.
6. Intervention responses to exceptional behaviour

IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES/TEXTS/MATERIALS:

Applestein, Charles D., (1998): No Such Thing As a Bad Kid – Understanding and Responding to the Challenging Behaviour of Troubled Children and Youth. The Gifford School, Weston, MA.

Note: Membership in our professional association is essential to work in some agencies and is part of the criteria for some scholarships available to students within the program. Although it is not mandatory to obtain a membership, it is strongly recommended.

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM.

The class will be taught through a combination of lectures, presentations and group discussion. The format will vary according to material being presented.

- a) Attendance and punctuality: It is expected that each student will maintain a level of attendance and punctuality reflective of commitment to the learning and to the profession. This reflects the qualities of reliability and dependability. Children and youth at risk require reliable and dependable adults in their lives and these qualities are expected to be demonstrated in class.
- b) To complete assignments, readings, and /research on time, and be prepared to discuss this material in class.
- c) To participate actively and fully in class discussions, to be respectful of your colleagues, the instructor and the material presented. The Student Code of Conduct, and all other applicable Sault College policies (including The Child and Youth Worker policy manual) apply to all students at all times – including fieldwork. Child and Youth Workers are further bound by our Code of Ethics. Preservation of confidentiality as per CYW policy is expected.
- d) To be prepared to demonstrate effective intervention techniques through role-play, simulations, and/or critical incident analysis.
- e) To complete in-class tests on the material covered.
- f) Student will participate in a mandatory Duty to Report workshop (times and dates provided in class) and complete a test on the workshop. A passing grade in this workshop is required to pass the course.
- g) The student needs to demonstrate understanding and empathy for vulnerable clients and their unique issues by way of written assignments and verbal discussions. This can be demonstrated by the use of non-judgmental language and the genuine attempt to view the situation/issue from another's perspective.

GRADING/ASSIGNMENTS:

Student Success Plan	10%
Journal Assignment	10%
Observation Report	10%
Duty to Report Workshop and test	10%
Tests* (10% x 4)	40%
Attendance	10%
Professional Development/Participation	10%
Total	100%

NOTE: In the event that mid-term grades are not satisfactory, the student will be required to arrange a meeting with the instructor whereby academic difficulties and strategies to remediate these difficulties will be discussed. This is to assist the student to meet the course objectives. It is the student's responsibility to schedule this meeting with the teacher upon receipt of mid-term grades. An "F" at mid-term is an automatic course repeat.

Tests will be written as scheduled. If a student arrives late for a test, they may enter the testing room, provided no student has yet left the room. There will be no extra time allowed to complete the test. It is the students' responsibility to be punctual. There will be no opportunity to write missed tests. There are no 'make-up' assignments or tests.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of everyone, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled classes and evaluation sessions. This includes arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.

Assignment Outlines and Grading Criteria

This will be provided in the Student Information Package handed out on the first day of class.

Classroom Expectations

Students are expected to behave in a manner consistent with professional expectations in the CYW field. This extends to verbal, non-verbal behaviour as well as clothing and general deportment. It is expected that students are familiar with the Sault College Student Roles and Responsibilities, as well as CYW policies. All students have the right to a learning environment that is free of distraction or harassment/abuse. Cell phones and other electronic communications devices should be turned off or at least on silent mode during class time. Food should be eaten outside the classroom. Use of laptops will be discussed in class. Adherence to these and similar expectations will assist in creating a positive, inviting, and safe learning environment for all.

Accommodations for Special Needs
