

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Community Development is a specialization in the human service field. Its focus is on building healthy communities through processes which are inclusive, self-determining and community driven. It connects people in common purposes -transforming conditions and outcomes that matter to them, in areas such as public health, social services and community enrichment. This course will provide a theoretical exploration and practical application of select Community Development practices.

In addition, the course will focus on the student's growth and development as a professional. Professionalism and creativity will be a mainstay of the course with a particular emphasis on personal and professional commitment pertinent to the student's final semester.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of community in its broader context.

Elements of Performance

Participants will be able to utilize and/or discuss selected strategies from the following topic areas:

- Identifying the "community" you wish to develop and/or promote
- Developing a plan for identifying that communities' needs and resources both internal and external
- Collecting and analyzing relevant information

2. Demonstrate an understanding of the collaborative planning processes

Elements of Performance

Participants will be able to utilize and/or discuss selected strategies from the following topic areas:

- Developing vision and mission statements
- Creating objectives strategic goals and directions
- Developing an action plan defining the mandate

3. Be familiar with theoretical concepts of leadership and participation

Elements of the performance

Participants will be able to utilize and/or discuss selected strategies from the following topic areas:

- Identifying and contacting potential participants amongst diverse groups
- Developing a plan for involving volunteers and partners
- Conducting effective meetings

4. Develop awareness of community action and intervention processes

Elements of the performance

Participants will be able to utilize and/or discuss selected strategies from the following topic areas:

- Designing community interventions
- Adapting community interventions for different cultures and communities
- Developing a plan for advocacy

5. Have an understanding of evaluation processes

Elements of the performance

Participants will be able to utilize and/or discuss selected strategies from the following topic areas:

- Utilizing a framework for program evaluation
- Developing an evaluation plan
- Measuring success: gathering and using community level indicators

6. Become familiar with methods for promoting and sustaining the initiative

Elements of the performance

Participants will be able to utilize and/or discuss selected strategies from the following topic areas:

- Utilizing promotional strategies
- Developing a plan for financial sustainability
- Strategies for sustaining the initiative

7. Interact with others in a community development initiative in ways that contribute to effective working relationships and the achievement of goals.

Elements of the performance

- Identify the tasks to be completed.
- Establish strategies to accomplish the tasks.
- Identify roles for members of the team/group, including related professionals, paraprofessionals, non-professionals, and agency personnel.
- Clarify one's own roles and fulfil them in a timely fashion.
- Treat other members of the group equitably and fairly.
- Contribute one's ideas, opinions and information while demonstrating respect for the contributions of others.
- Regularly assess the group's progress and interactions and make adjustments when necessary.
- Apply relevant professional ethics, attitudes and practices.

8. Communicate clearly, concisely and correctly in the written, verbal and visual form that fulfils the purpose and meets the needs of the audience.

Potential elements of the performance

- Plan and organize communications according to the purpose and audiences.
- Choose the format appropriate to the purpose.
- Incorporate the content that is meaningful and necessary.
- Produce material that conforms to the conventions of the chosen format.
- Use language and style suited to the audience and purpose.
- Ensure that the materials are free from mechanical errors

111. REQUIRED RESOURCES/TEXTS/MATERIALS:

Rules of the game: Lessons from the field of community change, (1999): Homan, Mark Brooks Cole

Many topic areas of course are adapted from information available on the internet through "The Citizen's Handbook" <http://www.vcn.bc.ca/citizens-handbook> and one of its links, the "Community Toolbox" ctb lsi ukans tools

This is a vast web-based resource which is available at no cost to users.

Links to huge resource base for current and future use. Additional web links are found on LMS.

IV. COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Community Development Project

This course is project driven. The event to be planned is the 10th Annual W.A.L.K.

The event will take place April 10, 2010. Attendance is of course, compulsory. Children, family, and friends welcome and encouraged to attend.

Working in groups, all students will contribute to and be involved in this community development project.

Class Participation and Commitment

Attendance, contribution, effort, participation, and feedback will all be essential. If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to find out what was done. This course has both theoretical and experiential components, involving considerable discussion and self-directed learning.

Community Research Project

In pairs, students will be required to research one community development organization or group in the community (i.e. EDC) to gain information about how programs are developed and funded and who are the resources in their community. Students will be required to present the information they have gathered to the class in the format of a class discussion whereby each group will share their findings with their classmates. Students will be required to inform the professor the name of the organization they will interview and provide a written outline of their interview format and questions before they meet with the community agency or program. Upon approval they will proceed with this project. A list of appropriate organizations and agencies will be brainstormed in class at the beginning of the semester.

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM:

Attendance and Participation	30%
Requisite Documentation	20%
Quiz #1	10%
Community Research Project	20%
Group CD Proposal (in class)	20%

The following semester grades will be assigned to students in post-secondary courses:

Grade	Definition	Grade Point Equivalent
A+	90 – 100%	4.00
A	80 – 89%	3.00
B	70 - 79%	2.00
C	60 - 69%	1.00
D	50 – 59%	0.00
F (Fail)	49% and below
CR (Credit)	Credit for diploma requirements has been awarded.
S	Satisfactory achievement in field /clinical placement or non-graded subject area.
U	Unsatisfactory achievement in field/clinical placement or non-graded subject area.
X	A temporary grade limited to situations with extenuating circumstances giving a student additional time to complete the requirements for a course.
NR	Grade not reported to Registrar's office.
W	Student has withdrawn from the course without academic penalty.

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

NOTE: Mid Term grades are provided in theory classes and clinical/field placement experiences. Students are notified that the midterm grade is an interim grade and is subject to change.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Course Outline Amendments:

The professor reserves the right to change the information contained in this course outline depending on the needs of the learner and the availability of resources.

Retention of Course Outlines:

It is the responsibility of the student to retain all course outlines for possible future use in acquiring advanced standing at other postsecondary institutions.

Prior Learning Assessment:

Students who wish to apply for advance credit transfer (advanced standing) should obtain an Application for Advance Credit from the program coordinator (or the course coordinator regarding a general education transfer request) or academic assistant. Students will be required to provide an unofficial transcript and course outline related to the course in question. Please refer to the Student Academic Calendar of Events for the deadline date by which application must be made for advance standing.

Credit for prior learning will also be given upon successful completion of a challenge exam or portfolio.

Substitute course information is available in the Registrar's office.

Disability Services:

If you are a student with a disability (e.g. physical limitations, visual impairments, hearing impairments, or learning disabilities), you are encouraged to discuss required accommodations with your professor and/or the Disability Services office. Visit Room E1101 or call Extension 2703 so that support services can be arranged for you.

Communication:

The College considers WebCT/LMS as the primary channel of communication for each course. Regularly checking this software platform is critical as it will keep you directly connected with faculty and current course information. Success in this course may be directly related to your willingness to take advantage of the Learning Management System communication tool.

Plagiarism:

Students should refer to the definition of “academic dishonesty” in Student Code of Conduct. A professor/instructor may assign a sanction as defined below, or make recommendations to the Academic Chair for disposition of the matter. The professor/instructor may (i) issue a verbal reprimand, (ii) make an assignment of a lower grade with explanation, (iii) require additional academic assignments and issue a lower grade upon completion to the maximum grade “C”, (iv) make an automatic assignment of a failing grade, (v) recommend to the Chair dismissal from the course with the assignment of a failing grade. In order to protect students from inadvertent plagiarism, to protect the copyright of the material referenced, and to credit the author of the material, it is the policy of the department to employ a documentation format for referencing source material.

Student Portal:

The Sault College portal allows you to view all your student information in one place. mysaultcollege gives you personalized access to online resources seven days a week from your home or school computer. Single log-in access allows you to see your personal and financial information, timetable, grades, records of achievement, unofficial transcript, and outstanding obligations, in addition to announcements, news, academic calendar of events, class cancellations, your learning management system (LMS), and much more. Go to <https://my.saultcollege.ca>.

Electronic Devices in the Classroom:

Students who wish to use electronic devices in the classroom will seek permission of the faculty member before proceeding to record instruction. With the exception of issues related to accommodations of disability, the decision to approve or refuse the request is the responsibility of the faculty member. Recorded classroom instruction will be used only for personal use and will not be used for any other purpose. Recorded classroom instruction will be destroyed at the end of the course. To ensure this, the student is required to return all copies of recorded material to the faculty member by the last day of class in the semester. Where the use of an electronic device has been approved, the student agrees that materials recorded are for his/her use only, are not for distribution, and are the sole property of the College.

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.

Students may not be allowed to enter the classroom once the class has begun depending on the focus of that session. Students may be asked to wait until the break to enter the classroom however the final decision rests with the instructor.