

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course will provide students with a practical orientation to the Youth Criminal Justice Act. This will include a review of origins and philosophical principles, and how legislation is operationalized, with an emphasis on the local service delivery system. It will examine the role of the CYW in the prevention of youth crime as well as in intervention at the community level, in custody settings and elsewhere in the criminal justice system. It will focus particularly on treatment of youth in conflict with the law, including both general and specific programming techniques. The course can be viewed as a consolidation of related course content leading to refinement of skills applicable to youth criminal justice. The format will include a combination of lectures, guest speakers, audiovisual presentations and class discussion.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Collect, analyze and organize relevant and necessary information from a variety of sources pertaining to youth criminal justice in Canada.

Potential Elements of Performance

III. TOPICS:

- 1) Review of legislation (YCJA, CFSA)
- 2) Review of local service delivery system
- 3) Profiling youth in conflict with the law: Myths and Facts
- 4) Teaching Prosocial Competencies (interpersonal skills, anger management, moral reasoning training, empathy training, etc.)
- 5) Practical Application of Case Management Techniques
- 6) Social Issues which impact directly on the youth criminal justice system
- 7) Appropriate Application of Confrontation Skills
- 8) The Role of the CYW in correctional settings

IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES/TEXTS/MATERIALS:

Information will also be drawn from a number of local, provincial and federal sources, including Dept of Justice Canada website (www.justice.gc.ca and following links to “YCJA Explained”) and the Ministry of Children and Youth Services website (www.children.gov.on.ca and following links to “Youth Justice Services”)

V. COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1) In Class Student Practice Sessions (Skill Demonstration) and Participation:

In groups of 2 students will prepare and co-facilitate a 30-minute session on a topic relevant to youth in conflict with the law (or youth at risk) i.e. anger management, stress management, problem-solving skills, interpersonal skills training, parenting skills, safe sex etc. Topics will be explored as a group at the beginning of the semester. Each session will be conducted with 10 “clients” drawn from the classroom and will be evaluated by the instructor and the remainder of the class in accordance with an evaluation sheet to be provided. The expectation is that all members of the group will participate. The instructor will debrief the practice sessions with the class and provided relevant feedback related to conducting groups with adolescents who offend. Groups and topics will be determined at the first class.

Students will be expected to participate in several group counselling sessions lead by their peers. As a participant, students will be graded on their willingness to participate, their level of participation in the group itself and their ability to support the learning experience of their peers. Students will be expected to hand in five (5) feedback sheets related to the practice sessions. The student’s responses on the feedback sheet will provide the instructor with an assessment of the knowledge acquired through participation, feedback and discussion related to facilitating groups for young offenders. The final mark for skill development and participation will reflect the student’s comprehension and skill acquisition related to group work for this population.

Students will need to attend class in order to participate in these practice sessions and gain the valuable learning experience of being a member of these sessions. Due to the nature of these exercises, students cannot be evaluated if they are absent.

2) Choice:

a. Research Paper

In pairs, student will be required to write a 4 -6 page research paper on a topic of their choice related to adolescents in conflict with the law. The paper needs to be written in APA format and must be double spaced and type written. Expectations related to APA format will be reviewed and distributed in class.

b. Small Group Presentation: In pairs, students will choose from the assigned range of topics related to youth in conflict with the law: Details to be given in class and included in Student Package

- 3) Mid-term and Final Test
