

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course will build upon the students' knowledge of theory and technique in Child and Youth Work. A variety of therapeutic approaches and philosophies will be studied with an emphasis upon understanding the processes involved and applications to situations drawn from practical and clinical experiences. Techniques affecting treatment and counselling applications will be identified with the major focus being an empathic perspective of the youth, the family, community and societal implications. As a professional agent of change, the Child and Youth Worker must be able to demonstrate his/her knowledge and understanding of youth within the context of development: physical, psychological, familial and social.

Students are expected to consistently apply the skills previously studied, as befits the "senior-level" nature of this course.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:

Upon successful completion of this course the student will demonstrate the ability to:

1. Foster and utilize therapeutic environments which respect culture and which promote overall well-being and facilitate positive change for children, youths, and their families.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- identify established counselling processes as they relate to children/youth/families
 - demonstrate respect and genuineness in the simulated sessions
2. Design and implement strategies, which promote the overall well-being of the client and facilitate positive change for children, youths, and their families.

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- classify various counselling theories and techniques using procedures and terminology appropriate to the role of the professional child and youth worker
 - demonstrate methods and techniques drawn from a variety of counselling theories
 - select techniques and strategies appropriate to the needs of the client and/or family
3. Communicate effectively in oral, written and nonverbal forms to enhance the quality of service

Potential Elements of the Performance:

- compare and contrast the various counselling theories and techniques for the purpose of selecting appropriate counselling strategies for particular clients and client groups
- articulate the principles of various counselling theories and techniques as they apply to children and youth

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM:PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE SELF-EVALUATION*10%

Students will reflect on and self-evaluate the quality of their “Professional Practice” skills during the semester. Professional Practice is related to those competencies described in the Ontario Association of Child and Youth Counsellors Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice.

ASSIGNMENTS60%

This course has both theoretical and experiential components, involving considerable discussion and self-directed learning. Students will engage in small group presentations, case work and in class activities and discussions during regularly scheduled classes. The format and assessment of the activities will be discussed in class and posted on D2L.

TESTS (2)30%

Tests/Quizzes must be completed on the date scheduled. If unable to attend due to illness or extenuating circumstances, contact the professor at least one hour prior to the start of the test. If advance notice is NOT given to the Professor, the student will receive a mark of “0”. It is the student’s responsibility to make an alternative date with the professor that must be scheduled before the next class.

NOTE: All assignments must be submitted on the due date at the beginning of the class period unless otherwise specified by the professor. Late submissions will be deducted 1% per day of your overall course mark, which commences at the beginning of the class in which the assignment was due. Assignments will only be accepted after the due date for a period of 7 days (one week). At that point, the student will receive an automatic “0” for the assignment. Students are encouraged to communicate with their instructor if extenuating circumstances exists and request an extension. Granting extensions is up to the discretion of the instructor.*

Students MUST submit all papers and assignments through the Dropbox on D2L. Assignments not submitted in this fashion will not be accepted and the students will be directed to resubmit their assignment through the proper channels. It is the student’s responsibility to be familiar with and utilize D2L for all college communication and submissions with and for the professor. Should a student experience problems the IT department at Sault College is available to assist them.
