

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The world we are living in is one in which local, national and international issues are interwoven, and the need for us to understand the impact these issues can have on our lives has never been greater! Using a socio-cultural, political and environmental lens, students will view how the world is changing and how to become active agents of change – from the local to international level. Important issues such as social injustice, poverty, environmental protection, resource scarcity, sustainability, and health will be addressed. Global citizenship...an opportunity to 'Be the Change'.

This course meets the Civic Life and Social and Cultural Understanding General Education themes.

IV. REQUIRED RESOURCES/TEXTS/MATERIALS:

Professors will provide students with Reading Materials, Online Resources, and Audio and Video Resources to cover material for the course. Students are encouraged to share useful resources related to course material that they locate.

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM:Evaluation

Students will be responsible for regular attendance and class participation in all areas of the course, as well as all independent readings and tasks as assigned.

The final course grade will be determined as follows:

ASSIGNMENTS/TESTS	VALUE
Tests (2 x 20%)	40%
Personal Responses	20%
Action Project:	40%
TOTAL:	100%

Specifics on assignments and tests to be provided by the professor.

Late submissions of any assigned work will be penalized 1%/day late. After five days, work will not be graded.

If a student misses a due date or test date to a verifiable illness or incident, the professor will determine if the student is eligible for an extension for an assignment or re-scheduling of a test. The student is ultimately responsible and obligated to contact the professor by phone, in person, or through email prior to the assigned due date or test time. The College 24-hour voice mail number and email systems allow you to immediately notify the professor with your name, message, and phone number.

Upon returning to college (your first day back), the student will immediately contact the professor to make arrangements for the assignment or test. Phone, email or come by the professor's office: if not communicating personally, make sure to leave contact information. Failure to do so will result in a zero grade.

Notification policy in brief: Mutual respect, courtesy, and accountability.

Students are also responsible for obtaining any materials missed due to absenteeism.

The following semester grades will be assigned to students in post-secondary courses:

Grade	Definition	Grade Point Equivalent
A+	90 – 100%

X	A temporary grade limited to situations with extenuating circumstances giving a student additional time to complete the requirements for a course.
NR	Grade not reported to Registrar's office.
W	Student has withdrawn from the course without academic penalty.

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

If a faculty member determines that a student is at risk of not being academically successful, the faculty member may confidentially provide that student's name to Student Services in an effort to help with the student's success. Students wishing to restrict the sharing of such information should make their wishes known to the coordinator or faculty member.

VI. SPECIAL NOTES:

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.

VII. COURSE OUTLINE ADDENDUM

The provisions contained in the addendum located in D2L and on the portal form part of this course outline.
