IV. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM:

Section A: Diversity

Midterm exam	25%
Essay	2X15%
Final exam	35%
Guest Lectures	10%

Students must be present during guest lectures. Marks will be deducted if not in attendance. The percentage deducted will be determined by the number of guest lectures divided by the number of lectures missed by the student.

Student-professor interaction is essential to evaluate the student's knowledge of the subject matter. Students are expected to be able to express their substantiated opinion on the class topic.

Students will be evaluated on their ability to express and substantiate their opinions and beliefs. Notes are available on LMS, however it must be understood that students must attend class to understand the content of the material being taught.

Opinions expressed must be directed toward learning and understanding the beliefs and customs of differing cultural practices, religions, and beliefs. Prejudicial remarks based on hatred will not be tolerated and may result in dismissal from the course.

The following semester grades will be assigned to students:

Grade	Definition	Grade Point Equivalent

F (Fail)	49% and below
CR (Credit)	Credit for diploma requirements has been awarded.
S	Satisfactory achievement in field /clinical placement or non-graded subject area.
U	Unsatisfactory achievement in field/clinical placement or non-graded subject area.
X	A temporary grade limited to situations with extenuating circumstances giving a student additional time to complete the requirements for a course.
NR	Grade not reported to Registrar's office.
W	Student has withdrawn from the course without academic penalty.

Note: For such reasons as program certification or program articulation, certain courses require minimums of greater than 50% and/or have mandatory components to achieve a passing grade.

Students enrolled in Police Foundations or Law and Security Administration programs will require a minimum of 60% (C) as a passing grade in each course.

It is also important to note, that the minimum overall GPA required in order to graduate from a Sault College program remains 2.0.

V. SPECIAL NOTES:

Attendance:

Sault College is committed to student success. There is a direct correlation between academic performance and class attendance; therefore, for the benefit of all its constituents, all students are encouraged to attend all of their scheduled learning and evaluation sessions. This implies arriving on time and remaining for the duration of the scheduled session.
