PHILOSOPHY/GOALS (COURSE DESCRIPTION)

The course aims at enriching reading, writing and presentation skills. Students' critical and creative thinking strategies and interpersonal skills will also be enhanced. These higher level communication skills are required by students employed in health care settings.

METHOD OF ASSESSMENT (GRADING METHOD)

Students will be assessed on the basis of their essay assignments, comprehension and vocabulary tests, oral presentation skills and employment package.

The following grade symbols will be used in recording final grades:

- "A+" - consistently outstanding
- "A" - outstanding
- "B" - above average
- "C" - satisfactory
- "R" - repeat (The student has not achieved the required objectives and must repeat the course.)

Note: Students may be assigned an "R" grade early in the course for unsatisfactory performance.

TEXTBOOK AND SUPPLIES

1. Webster's New World Dictionary, third college edition, General Publishing Company.
2. Process and Practice: The Canadian Writing Workbook by Ronald Conrad, third edition.
3. Connections, Effective Reading and Writing by William Van Nest.
4. Students will be required to purchase two overhead transparencies and a black or blue non-permanent, water soluble transparency pen (available in the Campus Shop.)

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the course, students will be able to do the following:

1. write brief, coherent essays using a number of expository techniques to serve a specific audience.
2. summarize, and critically analyze a variety of materials.
3. read, comprehend and show vocabulary development at an advanced level.
4. deliver well-organized, coherent, effective oral presentations, using visual aids where appropriate.
