

Sault Ste. Marie College -
School of Applied Arts and Technology
Sault Ste. Marie.

Course - Outline

HOSPITALITY ADMINISTRATION

HMG 212-4

7 u b$ A

revised JANUARY 1978 <sup>1</sup>

HO SPITALITY ADMINISTRATION

HMG 212

REFERENCES

All industry trade publications available in library. Texts as referred by instructor.

PURPOSE OF COURSE

To relate all subjects that have been taught; to examine and find solutions to current management problems; to research topics in the areas that the student intend to persue as a career.

OBJECTIVES

To be competent in this subject the student must be able to:

1. Research topics and make recommendations.
2. Write papers on aspects of the industry currently of interest.
3. Demonstrate awareness of current trends, systems, developments etc.
4. Complete, to the satisfaction of the hotel manager, a two week on-the-job work program, and submit a written report on same.
5. Attend the HRA Convention and submit a report on same.

EVALUATION

Term Assignments and projects	60
Work on-the-job	20
Convention report	20
	100
Passing Grade	60

MAKE UP

Because of the format of this course make up privileges cannot be granted. However, reports or papers that are not satisfactory will be returned and can be resubmitted as per instructions. This condition will only be accorded if the instructor considered the original submission demonstrated satisfactory effort.