

ETHICS

LAS 310

Course Title

Course No.

Instructor: Scott Jones/Ian Murrant

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course will explore the professional conduct and attitude with particular reference to Enforcement. The course will focus on the individual's ability to professionally represent him/herself within the field.

PHILOSOPHY

To develop a basic philosophy of Ethics and Professionalism in order to deal with the applied world of Enforcement from the Publics Enforcement Agency's and the Individual Officer's perspective.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The student will be able to:

1. Explain different theories regarding moral vs. ethical decisions.
2. Define character and integrity on the job.
3. Explain the mission of law enforcement and list pertinent sections of the Code of Ethics.
4. Define public trust.
5. Discuss and show an understanding of corruption (abuse of power) in Policing.
6. Show an understanding of how ethics and leadership are related.
7. Discuss moral problems that arise in Law Enforcement Agencies.
8. Define prejudice and show an understanding of how prejudice manifests itself on the job.

ETHICS

LAS 310

Course Title

Course No,

STUDENT EVALUATION METHODS

Participation 10%

Debate Rebuttal 10%

Tests (3 x 20%) 60%

Debate 20%

REQUIRED STUDENT RESOURCES

Delattre, E. (Ethics in Policing) Character and Cops

COLLEGE GRADING POLICY

90 - 100%	=	A+
80 - 89%	=	A
70 - 79%	=	B
60 - 69%	=	C
Below 60	=	R (Repeat Course)