I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The aim of this course is to make Canadian politics a meaningful subject matter for all students. We will discuss the sources of our political system and examine the structure of government at all levels. The students will identify issues and problems in Canada and question how they are dealt with by government. This will lead to an increased awareness of the ever-changing political scene in Canada and to greater participation in the political process.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES AND ELEMENTS OF THE PERFORMANCE:A. Learning Outcomes:

1. Recognize the major issues of Canadian politics
2. Identify the origins and shaping of the Canadian political system
3. Explain the party system in Canada and our electoral process
4. Describe the operation of the Canadian parliamentary system
5. Explain the meaning and significance of federalism in Canada and describe the framework of the Constitution
6. Criticize the use and abuse of power in government
7. Define Canada's political and economic relationship with the world
8. Evaluate Canada's chances of survival as a nation
