Instruction Methods/Class Activities

Lecture, class discussion, group activities, video tape presentations and assigned readings are designed to provide students with different learning style opportunities to gain an understanding of sociology of the family. A review of personal and social experiences will be complemented by instruction on how to analyze the family as a social institution. The text which is required reading will provide the themes of study. All tests are based on this text, class lectures and notes.

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM*TIME FRAME

Sociology of the Family meets two periods per week during the semester. Students are expected to attend classes, to participate in collaborative group activities and class discussion.

1. Written assignments 30%

There will be at least two selected by the professor from the following options:

- journals of reflective thought
- short response papers
- brief social analysis papers
- reports of social experiments

2. Tests 70%

Tests are a combination of short answer, essay and objective.

Anyone who is incomplete in 30% or more of graded course components will receive a final grade of "R".

V. EVALUATION PROCESS/GRADING SYSTEM

NOTE: Students who miss a test must notify the professor in advance if possible or at the earliest opportunity to request a rewrite. Allowing the rewrite is at the professor's discretion if the student has provided a reasonable excuse for the absence. Requests for rewrites will be denied if made one week or more after the test date.
